

Owing to the persistent attempt of numerous cigarette manufacturers to cope in part the Brand Name of the "Richmond Straight Cut." Now in the eleventh year of their popularity, we think it alike due to the protection of the consumer and ourselves, to warn the public against base imitations and call their attention to the fact that the original Straight Cut Brand is the Richmond Straight Cut No. 1, introduced by us in 1875, and to caution the students to observe that our signature appears on every package of the Genuine Straight Cut Cigarettes.

Somebody has invented a good story—a story too good not to be true. He says that at an examination of Woolwich students the following answers were given to the question:—"Give the meanings of abiiit excessit, erupit, evasit": Abiiit—"He went out to dine." Excessit—"He took more than was good for him." Erupit—"It violently disagreed with him." Evasit—"He put it down to the salmon."—London Globe.

Sheridan once succeeded admirably in entrapping a noisy member who was in the habit of interrupting every speaker with cries of "Hear! hear!" Richard Brinsley took an opportunity to allude to a well-known political character of the time, whom he represented as a person who wished to play the rogue, but had only sense enough to play the fool. "Where," exclaimed Sheridan, in continuation and with great emphasis—"where shall we find a more foolish knave or a more knavish fool than this?" "Here! here!" was instantly bellowed from the accustomed bench. The wicked wit bowed, thanked the gentleman for his ready reply to the question, and sat down, amid convulsions of laughter from all but the unfortunate subject.
