

(2) Furthermore, the Council is authorised to make and arrange for other studies, including studies of the various forms of special assistance to the sugar industry, for the purpose of assembling comprehensive information and for the formulation of proposals which the Council deems relevant to the attainment of the general objectives set forth in Article 1 or relevant to the solution of the commodity problem involved. Any such studies shall relate to as wide a range of countries as practicable and shall take into consideration the general social and economic conditions of the countries concerned.

(3) The studies undertaken pursuant to paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Article shall be carried out in accordance with such terms as may be laid down by the Council, and in consultation with the Participating Governments.

(4) The Governments concerned agree to inform the Council of the results of their consideration of the recommendations and proposals referred to in this Article.

Chapter XIII.—Administration

ARTICLE 27

(1) An International Sugar Council is hereby established to administer this Agreement.

(2) Each Participating Government shall be a voting member of the Council and shall have the right to be represented on the Council by one delegate and may designate alternate delegates. A delegate or alternate delegates may be accompanied at meetings of the Council by such advisers as each Participating Government deems necessary.

(3) The Council shall elect a non-voting Chairman who shall hold office for one quota year and shall serve without pay. He shall be selected alternately from among the delegations of the importing and exporting participating countries.

(4) The Council shall elect a Vice-Chairman who shall hold office for one quota year and shall serve without pay. He shall be selected alternately from among the delegations of the exporting and importing participating countries.

(5) The Council is authorised, after consultation with the International Sugar Council established under the International Agreement regarding the Regulation of Production and Marketing of Sugar signed in London, May 6, 1937, to accept the records, assets and liabilities of that body.

(6) The Council shall have in the territory of each Participating Government, and to the extent consistent with its laws, such legal capacity as may be necessary in discharging its functions under this Agreement.

ARTICLE 28

(1) The Council shall adopt rules of procedure which shall be consistent with the terms of this Agreement, and shall keep such records as are required to enable it to discharge its functions under this Agreement and such other records as it considers desirable. In the case of inconsistency between the rules of procedure so adopted and the terms of this Agreement, the Agreement shall prevail.

(2) The Council shall publish at least once a year a report of its activities and of the operation of this Agreement.

(3) The Council shall develop, prepare and publish such reports, studies, charts, analyses and other data as it may deem desirable and helpful.
