

Facing this situation, a question remains: What can the Canadian industry do in order to prepare itself for Europe 1992 and its direct and indirect impacts on the sector?