

MRS. JEAN CASSELMAN

Born September 16, 1920 at Newton Robinson, Ontario. Mrs. Casselman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Earl Rowe (Dufferin-Simcoe) and was educated at Cookstown Continuation School, Barrie Collegiate, University of Toronto, and Weller Business College. Married May 24, 1946 to a Clair Casselman, M.P. now deceased. Two children: Nancy Jean and William Clair. Religion: United Church of Canada. Member of Prescott Curling Club, Prescott Golf Club, University of Toronto Alumni and Canadian Authors Association. Home address, Prescott, Ontario.

First elected to House of Commons on September 29, 1957 in Grenville-Dundas by-election, member of Special Committee on Broadcasting 1961, member of the Agricultural Committee 1960.

GORDON HARVEY AIKEN, Q.C.

Born September 26, 1918 in Ripley, Ontario. Educated at Allenford Continuation School, Owen Sound Collegiate Institute and Osgoode Hall Law School, graduating with honours with degree of Barrister-at-Law in 1940. Entered Canadian Army in 1941. Commissioned in Infantry Corps. Served in Canada, United Kingdom and Continental Europe and discharged in January 1946. Married December 7, 1945 to Marie K. Miller at Prince George, British Columbia. Three children, Carol, Anne and George.

Following end of war, practised law in District of Muskoka, Ontario. Appointed First Judge of Juvenile and Family Court of Muskoka in July 1951 and served in this position until 1956 when he resigned to stand as candidate for election to House of Commons. Elected June 10, 1957 and re-elected March 31, 1958 as Member for Parry Sound-Muskoka.

Parliamentary Observer at 13th Session of the General Assembly of the United Nations in 1958. Attended 14th and 15th General Assembly as a private member during major debates. Delegate to Canada-United States Inter-Parliamentary Group at Washington, D.C. in June 1961. Member of NATO Parliamentary Association and Commonwealth Parliamentary Association. Member of House of Commons Standing Committee on External Affairs. Has maintained a close interest in United Nations through personal contacts, panel discussions and numerous public appearances.