

	PAGE.
McFARLANE, LEWIS B.— Con.
Exchanges established in a number of places dwindled away....	826
Farmers' line construction is inferior and usually comes to grief..	812
Farmers' lines have not been taken over without agreement with owners.	809
Growth of company's business since 1900 indicates a more rapid develop- ment of rural business.....	813
Independent companies (small) are of mushroom growth and go out of existence in a few years.....	824
Independent Telephone Association of U. S., statement of J. B. Hoge, president of the, referred to.....	830, 831
Independent telephones on the increase.....	824
Inspector for every 200 telephones, there is practically an.....	825
Long distance connection with other companies would enable them to hold our property and we be blamed if business was not satisfactory.	815
Long distance interchange of service in United States is by amicable ar- rangement, not compulsory.....	815
Long distance service between Ottawa and New York over two systems	815
Long distance service in Europe.....	816
Long distance service over more than two systems, cannot recall any case.	816
Maintenance of rural lines and instruments discussed ...	825
Maintenance of rural lines more costly than that of village exchanges..	839
Manitoba, has some 40 or 50 applications for extensions in....	834
Maritime provinces, started as manager in in 1880.....	803
Neepawa Municipal system, no request received from for connection with company's system.....	812
Newfoundland, telephone business in, taken over by the Anglo-Ameri- can Telegraph Co. in 1883.....	805
'Nova Scotia,' and 'Bell' companies, no connection between..	804
Nova Scotia Telephone Co. bought out 'Bell' plants later on....	804
Operators require months of teaching to handle long distance service..	814
Population, density of, an important factor in telephone development..	836
Population per telephone in places over 7,000 inhabitants averages 21.9.	812
Railway traffic arrangements and physical connection of telephone lines, no analogy between.....	816
Rates asked for rural telephones vary from $15 to $25.....	811, 824, 827
Rates for farmers and local lines at Portage la Prairie, $30 a year, one telephone per mile.....	834
Rates for rural service based on business rate of town they connect with.	839, 841
Rates for rural service connecting a city of say 600 telephones would be $30.....	841
Rates for rural service on Niagara peninsula.....	820
Renewals have to be paid out of earnings.....	833
Repairs required at once most expensive as man may have to travel fifty or one hundred miles.....	825
Rural business desired as feeders to lines where it is non-competitive..	810, 820
Rural communities have been encouraged to build lines, and help pro- vided without profit to company.....	809
Rural companies connecting with Bell lines charged a toll for each conversation, payable monthly.....	827, 828
Rural companies do not protect systems from high potential currents, connection with their lines would carry hazard into our stations....	815
Rural companies organized by witness in New Brunswick still in ex- istence.....	804-805