QUESTION PASSED AS ORDER FOR RETURN

CAUGHNAWAGA RESERVE

Mr. DUPUIS:

1. What is the total number of Indians of the Caughnawaga reservation in the province of Quebec: (a) according to the 1931 census; (b) according to the latest statistics?

2. How many among them are 21 years of age and over?

3. How many among them have the right to hold real estate?

4. Has the government received a request or petitions: (a) from the council of the said reservation; (b) from any of the Indians, individually or collectively, expressing a desire to be enfranchised?

5. By virtue of what agreement or treaty did the Indians of the said reservation secure from the Dominion government the rights and privileges which they enjoy in their reservation?

6. On what date or dates was this agreement or treaty concluded?

7. Does the government intend enfranchising the Indians of the Caughnawaga reservation?

8. Should the superintendent of Indian Affairs decide to enfranchise the Indians of the Caughnawaga reservation, either individually or collectively, will the Indians of the said reservation retain the rights and privileges which they now enjoy, or will the said Indians lose their rights by reason of this enfranchisement?

9. From whom have they obtained the rights which they exercise, through the agency of the Department of Indian Affairs, in the seignior of Sault St. Louis?

10. Since what date have they held these rights?

11. What are the duties and obligations of the Department of Indian Affairs as seignior of the Seignior of Sault St. Louis?
