

2. Of the 100 Companions appointed, 11 were serving and 25 were former federal public servants. They may, however, have been awarded Companions for achievements unrelated to their service as a public servant.

3. Names are submitted by individuals or organizations to the Advisory Council which, by the Constitution of the Order of Canada, is composed of the following: The Chief Justice of Canada (Chairman); The Clerk of the Privy Council; The Under Secretary of State; The Chairman of the Canada Council; The President of the Royal Society of Canada; The President of the Association of Universities and Colleges of Canada.

SALARIES OF PUBLIC SERVANTS

Question No. 905—Mr. Orlikow:

1. What is the salary of Mr. Basil Robinson, the new Deputy-Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development and, what was his salary in the Department of the Secretary of State for External Affairs?

2. What is the salary of Mr. Sylvain Cloutier, the new Deputy Minister of National Revenue for Taxation and, what was his salary in the Treasury Board Secretariat?

3. What is the salary of Mr. John A. MacDonald, the new Deputy-Minister of Public Works and, what was his salary in the Department of Indian Affairs and Northern Development?

4. What is the annual salary of Mr. John Boucher, the new Deputy-Minister of Supply and Services, what was his salary in the Canada Council?

5. What is the salary of Mr. Gordon Hunter, the new Master of the Mint and what was his salary in the Department of Supply and Services?

6. What is the new salary of Mr. M. J. MacMillan, the Chairman of the Canadian National Railway Company and, what was his previous salary with CNR?

Mr. J. E. Walker (Parliamentary Secretary to Prime Minister): 1. Mr. Basil Robinson, Deputy-Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development, $33,000-37,000; Department of External Affairs, $28,000-33,000.

2. Mr. Sylvain Cloutier, Deputy-Minister of National Revenue (Taxation), $28,000-33,000; Treasury Board, $28,000-33,000.

3. Mr. John A. MacDonald, Deputy-Minister of Public Works, $33,000-37,000; Deputy-Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development; $33,000-37,000.

4. Mr. Jean Boucher, Deputy-Minister of Supply and Services, $28,000-33,000; Canada Council, $28,000-33,000.

5. Mr. Gordon Hunter, Master of the Mint, $28,000-33,000; Department of Supply and Services, $28,000-33,000.

Questions

6. Mr. M. J. MacMillan, after reappointment; as Chairman $5,000 and as President, $70,000; Before reappointment; as Chairman $5,000 and as President, $70,000.

COMPUTER DATA STORAGE OUTSIDE CANADA

Question No. 986—Mr. Kaplan:

1. Does the government use computer facilities which store data outside Canada?

2. Which departments and agencies use such facilities and to what extent?

Mr. Yves Forest (Parliamentary Secretary to President of the Privy Council): 1. and 2.

The Department of Agriculture use on a limited scale for computer program development the Computer Time Sharing, Place de Ville, Tower A. (computer is at Boston, U.S.A.) and the Greyhound Computer of Canada Limited, 1740 Woodward Drive (computer is at Stamford, Conn., U.S.A.)

The National Research Council of Canada participates in continuing international scientific programs, by acquiring information concerning such matters as cosmic ray intensities, meteorites, solar radio waves and transmitting this to the internationally appointed agencies which store, collate and disseminate it.

The Royal Canadian Mounted Police use the National Crime Information Centre in Washington, D.C. for the purpose of tracing criminals in connection with offences committed in Canada, plus exchange information on stolen motor vehicles and other identifiable stolen property. This information is also kept in Canada.

COMMEMORATIVE STAMPS, MANITOBA CENTENNIAL

Question No. 1,013—Mr. Stewart (Marquette):

Were postage stamps issued to commemorate Manitoba's Centennial Year and, if so (a) was the Government of Manitoba consulted on the design of these stamps (b) when were they consulted (c) who was consulted and did they approve?

Hon. Eric W. Kierans (Postmaster General and Minister of Communications): Yes; (a) No; (b) Not applicable; (c) The Manitoba Centennial Corporation was advised on November 25, 1965, of the department's intention to issue a stamp to commemorate Manitoba's Centennial Year and was invited to submit design proposals. No design proposals were submitted, however, and the only further contact in this regard was to advise the Corporation as to the appointment of a designer.