

CHAPTER XXIV.

THE MONASTERY NARROWLY ESCAPES A TOTAL CONFLAGRATION.

Origin and progress of the fire, p. 271.—Incidents, 276.—Col. McDougall, 278.—Thanksgivings, 280.—Benevolence, 281.—A card of thanks, 282.—The memorable 20th May, 1864, 284.

CHAPTER XXV.

THE BI-CENTENNIAL, 1839.

Preparations for the celebration, p. 287.—A thought of the past, 290.—Political aspect of Canada in 1839, 290.—The Convent reviews the blessings of Providence, 292.—Rev. Th. Maguire, 293.—Rev. G. L. Lemoine, 294.—Rev. Mother St. Andrew.—Rev. Mother St. Gabriel, 296.—Superiors from 1839 to 1872, 302.

CHAPTER XXVI.

PATRONS AND PATRONESSES.

St. Ursula, St. Angela, 304.—Foundation of the Order of the Ursulines, 309.—Its extent at the present day, 313.

CONCLUSION, p. 315.

Table of the deceased Nuns from 1739 to 1875, p. 317.—Professed Nuns of the present day, p. 325.

APPENDIX.

NOTES AND DOCUMENTS.

LINES OF

p. 221.
dates for ventures 231.—

—Board-ass, Ex-
St. Bor-her Cersulines
ms, 242.
—Mother
r Mary tronage 248.—
e Ursu-Baillair-

ULY.

3.—His-French
onvent-