
P R E F A C E.

THE materials upon which this Pamphlet is founded, were collected during the summer, with a view of throwing every possible light upon a subject, of such importance to the Commercial Interests and Naval Power of this Kingdom, and which was so soon to become one of the great objects of Parliamentary Inquiry and De-liberation. It is now submitted with