ortawa, May 19.—By the unprecedented majority of 47 the government tonight came off victorious in the first vote upon the Canadian Northern Liberal member for Norfolk, voted part to certain Liberal membas avoiding the vote.

Mr. Burnham of West Peterboro', who spoke somewhat bitterly of the Canadian Northern magnates, but declared Sharpe (Lisgar), Sharpe (Ontario), Total, 64 his intention of supporting the government. He was followed by several Liberal members from Quebec, including Hon. Rodolph Lemieux. The feature of the evening was the straightforward declaration of Mr. Charlton's opposing the Macdonald amendment.

W. F. Maclean's Position. Mr. W. F. Maclean, South York, opposed the six months' hoist, declaring that all thinking men of the country fore the house was one of urgent imortance. He thought the legislation ought down by the government was a long step in the direction of public ownership, but favored the govern-

There were two ships, he said, concerned in gun-running expeditions in addition to the Fanny, about which he had some knowledge. The Fanny transhipped some riges for importation into Ulster to Inismurray, which took about one-third of the Fanny's cargo and discharged them on the Irish coast. The charterer of the vessel was no less than the Earl of Leibrim who took up this ship for one week and 1,220 rifles were landed.
