An effort will be made to stimulate the recruiting and with the activities of the Hamilton Recruiting League a marked impetus will be given to the present rate at which men are offering themselves for military service. A recruiting station is being opene dtoday at the Gore Park.

Besides the men needed for the fifth contingent there are a number of vacancies in the 58th which are open as a result of the weeding out process necessary to bring that battalion up to a high standard of efficiency.

Women Burst Into Tears as Baby's Shoe Was Taken Out.

> NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., July 8,ing many morbid onlookers were hand to see the taking away of the debris of the wrecked car. The military ani provincial police authorities kept the too-anxious onlookers in hand.

Heaps of clothing, refuse from the picnic, including baskets of fruit, bot-tles of pickles, etc., were scattered all over the place, but the most pathetic thing was the finding of a baby's shoe. Just what had happened to the baby can only be surmised, but the hearts of everyone present filled to overflow-ing when they saw the little condeleof everyone present filled to overflowing when they saw the little sandaled thing dug out of the wreck. Hats, coats, spectacle cases, parts of bootsail testified to the awfulness of the tragedy. Women this morning were crying, as article after article of women's and children's apparel were taken from under the car. A baby's feeding bottle, a boy's cap, a girl's necklace, four women's hats, all added to the horror of the situation.

In which he said that he knew shortly after the car passed Brock's Monument that it was doomed.

He knew that even if it rounded each corner successfully it would pile up against the buildings at the wharf at the end of the run. Boyt says he did everything in his power to stop the runaway. He received a dislocated shoulder, gashed hands, and a general shaking up.
