

unto annexed an Accompt of the Quality, Quantity, and Value of all Sorts of Fish exported from England, and to what Parts Beyond-Sea, for ten distinct Years.

The Variety and Intricasy of this Subject have render'd this Report longer than I expected, for which, I ought to ask the Pardon of a Board whose Time is taken up in Matters of so much more Importance than I am able to lay before them.

All which is humbly submitted by Charles Davenant.

Inspector General's Office,
Decemb. the 10th, 1711.
