

- Pontiac, Ottawa chief, at Fort Duquesne, 289.
- Poole, W. F., on Cotton Mather and the Salem witchcraft, 122.
- Port Royal (Annapolis), Acadia, founded, 52; Lescarbot's pageant, 55; early life at, 56; Poutincourt returns to, 72; Jesuits arrive, 75; burned by Argall, 79; rebuilt, 79; D'Aunay controls, 94; French attack, 250. See also Acadia.
- Portugal, voyages to northwest, 6, 7; interest in Newfoundland fisheries, 7.
- Post, C. F., Moravian missionary, secures Indian alliance for the English, 341.
- Pottawattamies, Algonquin Indians on Lake Michigan, Allouez meets, 100; French friendship, 105; Sulpicians attempt to convert, 114.
- Pouchot, M., French captain, defends Fort Niagara, 346; surrenders, 347.
- Poutrincourt, Baron de, in Acadia with Monts, 51; founds Port Royal, 52; on the coast of New England, 54; greeting at Port Royal, 55; returns to Port Royal, 72; and the Jesuits, 75; death, 79.
- Presbyterianism, tendency in Connecticut, 215-218.
- Presqu'Isle (Erie), Penn., French blockhouse, 268.
- Prideaux, John, English general, expedition against Fort Niagara, 345; killed, 346.
- Prince, Thomas, on decline of the Great Awakening, 229.
- Princeton College, Edwards president, 231.
- Proctor, John, executed for witchcraft, 167, 168.
- Putnam, Ann, wife of Thomas, and the Salem witchcraft, 160, 194. See also Salem Village.
- Putnam, Ann, daughter of Thomas, and the Salem witchcraft, 160; confession, 186. See also Salem Village.
- Putnam, Israel, in Johnson's army, 296; in Abercrombie's army, 320; rescued from the stake, 333.
- Quebec, meaning of the name, 60; founded, 60; treason in, 61; first winter, 62; early conditions, 88, 90; attacked by the English in 1628, 91; surrender, 92; restored to France, 92; unsuccessful expedition against, in 1690, 156; situation, 349; position of French army in 1759, 350; problems of attack, 351; Wolfe prepares to get above, 352-355; bombardment, 353; English ascend to Plains of Abraham, 355; battle, 356-358; fall, 359. See also Stadacona.
- Radisson, Pierre d'Esprit, Sieur, explorations, 101.
- Rale, Sebastian, Jesuit missionary, at Norridgewock, 235-237; excites attacks on the English, 237, 238, 241; controversy with Baxter, 239; killed, 244; character, 244.
- Ravallac, assassin of Henry IV., 73.
- Recollets arrive in Canada, 86.
- Religion, effect of rigid organization, 213; condition in early years of eighteenth century, 220-222; Edwards on conversion, 224; revivals, 225; Great Awakening in New England, 226-232. See also Church and State, Congregationalism, Missions.
- Remigio, inquisitor, execution of witches by, 142.
- Renata, Maria, executed for witchcraft, 144.
- Rhode Island, share in Louisburg