DIVORCE LAW REFORM.

Editor World: Will you extend the hospitality of your columns to an English society whose objects and purposes intimately concern many residents in the Dominion?

The reform of the English divorce law is a matter which vitally affects the lives and happiness of many thousands of people within the United Kingdom. But the full effect of this important question is not so narrow or local, nor may it be regarded with indifference by any portion of the empire.

There is, first of all, a close connection between the divorce legislation of the mother country and that of the dominions, and the reform of the English law towards bringing them more into line with the course adopted by practically every other Protestant country will assuredly carry great weight with the Dominion legislatures.

But in two other respects the state of the English divorce laws more directly affects many residents in the colonies.
Firstly, many persons residing in the mother country and that of the dominions, are subject to the English law of divorce. Secondly, according to British law, a wife acquires the domicile of her husband from the time of her marriage, and is thus subject to the law of the country of divorce, so far as she is concerned.

Being therefore regulated by the English law, the English divorce laws in this matter of prime importance to the colonial women who marry Englishmen.
The object of the Divorce Law Reform Union, founded in 1906, is to use its whole strength and influence to prepare a speedy reform of the English laws of divorce.

(1) By cheapening the cost of divorce procedure so that it may be brought within the reach of all classes; the rest of present practically denying this result to the greater portion of the community.

(2) By placing the sexes on an equal footing as regards offence and relief in matters of divorce, thus adopting the course which has been followed by nearly every other civilized country.

(3) By discouraging the present system of permanent separation without divorce.

NO CLEAR SAYING IN SETTLING STRIKE

Both Laborites and Unionists Say Will Fight for Modifications in Minimum Wage Bill Introduced Yesterday—Miners Show Discontent Over Vagueness of Terms.

LONDON, March 19.—(Can. Press).— The coal mines minimum wage bill, designed to put an end to the coal strike, passed its first reading in the house of commons to-night. The bill is backed by Premier Asquith, Foreign Secretary Grey, Chancellor Lloyd George, and Sydney Buxton, president of the board of trade. It consists of six clauses and a schedule defining 24 districts, the country being divided for the purposes of the bill. As outlined by the prime minister, the bill provides a reasonable minimum wage for the miners and safeguards for the owners, these to be arranged by district boards. The minimum will be paid from the date of resumption of work. The enactment is for three years.

An important clause provides that if within a fortnight any district lacks recognized district board, the board of trade may appoint any person to act in place of the local body. There is nothing in the bill to prevent a recurrence of the strike should the miners be dissatisfied with the district board decision.

Opposition in Sight.
A brief debate followed the introduction of the bill, which does not give promise of easy passage through parliament. The opposition party is dissatisfied with the absence of penal clauses or measures for compulsory arbitration, and will move amendments with a view to remedying this.

The prime minister said that he introduced the bill, which gives the miners, but that it was imperative in the interests of the country. Chancellor Lloyd George seconded the bill. The government was confronted by the necessity of the speedy termination of the strike, but that recourse to drastic methods would create a perilous situation. The bill was far from revolutionary. It had been accepted by many of the owners and "reasonable" miners, which would result from prolonged operation of the strike, it was worth experimenting with. Even the remedy provided was only temporary, it gave the government time to devise a more permanent solution of the problem.

Not a "Syndicalist Proposal." Critics of the bill, however, had not suggested an alternative. They talked of applying governmental pressure on the owners, but did not indicate how this should be applied. He declared that the demand for a minimum wage was a syndicalist proposal, as the government conceded it to every civil servant.

Laborites Want Amendments.
J. Ramsay MacDonald, on behalf of the labor party, seconded the bill, but said that the labor members would hail it if it were amended in certain particulars. They would then give it all their support, but they would have to ask for some amendments in regard to the safeguards of the owners.

"The inclusion of a workman's schedule will be one of the amendments," he said. "There must also be security that the district boards have no power to reduce the existing rate of pay."

MacDonald concluded that he thought the house ought to be possible to get the bill through this week in a form which would be tolerably satisfactory to all concerned.

Great Consensus of Opinion.
Lord Robert Cecil, Conservative member of parliament for Hitchin, characterized the government's bill as the product of a small band of revolutionaries to obtain dictatorial power over the industries of the country. He charged the members of the government with purposely engineering strikes, and pointed out that the leader of the labor party, in his house of commons had characterized this as only the beginning of a campaign for a fixed minimum wage in all trades. The bill was a similar disturbance of the status quo, yielded to pressure and would produce a crop of fresh strikes.

Miners Dissatisfied.
At a meeting of the miners' federation to-night much discontent was expressed at the indefiniteness of the minimum wage provision, and it is expected that the labor leaders will renew their attempts to secure the schedule of minima by amendment.

The government, however, is anxious to have the bill passed. It is expected that the bill will be passed to-day.
Monday, as the shortage of coal has caused a serious situation in the country. Therefore, every effort will be made to get the bill through.

The house of lords will hold a special sitting on Saturday in order to carry the measure through the necessary stages.

Must Bailot First.
Charles Fenwick, Liberal member for Northumberland, who is a working collier, says he thinks that it will be necessary to take a ballot of the men on the bill before work is resumed at the mines. If so it will be impossible to resume on Monday.

Further rioting occurred in Lanarkshire to-day on account of non-unionists who went into the pits. Serious collisions between the police and miners ended with the arrest of some of the rioters and the injury of others. A similar disturbance occurred at St.
Feden's, Lancashire. It is announced that the North British Locomotive Works will shut down to-morrow, throwing 3000 men out of work.

An English laboring man took a train into the city of London recently and was astonished to be told that it was worth $1.75.
It was the "Children Bathing" of J. Ward, a famous eighteenth century engraver and painter. It is supposed that others of his mezzotints are owned by humble English families, but it is quite possible that they do not know the value of the pictures.

A railway in England has a box of toys on all its trains, so that children may have something to play with while travelling.

Toronto Man Cured of Intolerable Itch

Mr. J. E. Hooper, Toronto.

By Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment

"I just want to say a good word for Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Four or five years ago I was in Port Arthur, and I had an attack of the itch. It certainly was an intolerable nuisance. The itching was principally at night before I went to bed. The attacks were especially affected.

"I went to two doctors about it, and tried many of the most economical treatments for skin and scalp humors. Sold by druggists and chemists. I had probably been troubled with the itch for two or three months before I tried Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and they completely cured me of that intolerable nuisance. After one warm bath with Cuticura Soap and one of the Cuticura Ointment I was never troubled with the itching again.
Anything in this testimonial I would be prepared to swear to in a court of law." (Signed) J. E. Hooper, 285 Parliament Street, Toronto, Jan. 10, 1912.

For more than a generation Cuticura Soap and Ointment have afforded the speediest, simplest and most economical treatment for
and chemists. Each with 32-page book, sent free, to address, by the Foster Drug & Cham. Corp.,

MAKES SIMPLIFIED SPELLING VERY EASY

World Dictionary Offer Brings Modern Methods Within Reach of All.

"She blushed when he earnestly said." That sentence is not an example of poor spelling, but of simplified orthography.

Those who wish to follow the idea and eliminate unnecessary letters from the words will find The World's dictionary a ready aid.

One wit remarked when he first saw examples of the simplified orthography: "Is that simplified spelling? Why, I have always spelled that way."

But he had not. There are rules and "reasons why" in simplified spelling as in everything else that are the result of scientific investigation and arrangement.

The World's Dictionary contains the results of the careful study and work of the simplified spelling board organized by the suggestions of Andrew Carnegie and Theodore Roosevelt to reform orthography.

All the rules for making your spelling of words easier to write are contained in this department of the big volume of information which occupies so little space.

Hundreds of examples and comparisons of words that have been simplified and their old forms are given.
Whether you approve of simplified spelling or not, this treatise on the subject will help you form a better opinion of the work which has been accomplished.

Whether your method of spelling is simple or not, the means of getting the dictionary that thousands are talking of is so simple that it is almost still good for the book you have heard about.

A restaurant in Paris keeps a cow which is believed to be the smallest in the world. It is two feet high, and as it has reached its full maturity, it is not expected to add to its stature.

Lifeless Organs to Normal Condition.

Many a sufferer from Dyspepsia, Indigestion and kindred ailments of the digestive organs has been brought to absolutely useless stomach—a dead, lifeless and a cesspool for ever-increasing discomfort and the mucous lining has lost its secretory power, and food taken into the stomach lies there and ferments, causing sour eructations, belchings, heartburn, dizziness and other distressing conditions. Many sufferers have given up in despair until they have been induced by some interested friend to try a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the dyspeptic's hope. They are a natural restorative of healthy action to the stomach and small intestine, because they supply the elements that the weak stomach lacks—pepsin, golden seal and other digestive.

If you are afflicted with any of the symptoms above described, be assured that your digestive organs are losing power; they need help, and there is no more sensible thing to do than to give them the help they need. They will do the work of digestion for them.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have been found by test to give digestive powers, one grain of the active principle of these tablets being sufficient to digest 8,000 grains of ordinary food. It is plain that no matter what the condition of your stomach, or how far your disease has progressed, one of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets taken at meal time will do the work—give your stomach an opportunity to regain its lost powers, the muscles will be strengthened, the glands invigorated, and you will be a new man.

WILL LAY STEEL THRU TOWNS THIS FALL

Oshawa, Cobourg and Other Lake Front Places on New C. P. R. Line May Have Service Over New Road by Next Spring.

Steel will be laid on the new C. P. R. lakeshore line thru Port Hope, Cobourg, Oshawa and other lakefront towns this fall, and the contractors will not operate the line, it is quite possible that the railway will take it over and run it themselves in the spring of 1912.

Work on grading is to commence both east and west from Belleville at once. In a month or so actual construction will start from Leaside eastward. The right of way on this west section is not fully agreed upon yet.
Plans are expected, tho, to be filed for this part of the line any day now.

Construction will also be pressed towards the eastward. It is the intention of Hinde & Deeks, contractors, to make Leaside, Glenside and Bells-ville their main points of work, but supplies and equipment will be taken in at dozens of different places along the line.

SUES STREET RAILWAY

Mrs. Diehl Wants $500 for Injuries Received in Scuffle in Car.

Mrs. Pearl Diehl, 37 Edna-avenue, is suing the Toronto Railway Company for $500 and costs for the alleged failure on the part of the company's employes to compel two drunken men to leave the car on which plaintiff was travelling last October.

James Harper and Donald Johnson boarded the car in question in an alleged intoxicated condition. A fight between the two followed, in which one combatant fell into the lap of Mrs.
Diehl, thereby causing grievous injury to herself and her three months' old child which she held in her arms.

Col. Patterson of Osgoode Hall testified that as a passenger on the car at the time he ejected the two men, while the conductor was wasting time in search of an officer.

The case is proceeding before Judge Morgan and a jury.

A Medley of Facts and Figures.
Support of indigent insane aliens is costing New York more than $5,000,000 a year.

The municipal improvements made in Berlin in recent years constitute it one of the wonders of the world. The amount devoted to such betterments is $80,000,000.

The record amount of sunshine for London in August is 268 hours, which was attained in 1899, while the least occurred three years previously, when only seventy-three hours were registered.

The value of shipments invoiced thru the several consulates to the Philippines during 1911 was $3,587,810; a decrease of $1,382,410 compared with 1910; to Hawaii $561,095, a decrease of $158, 615; and to Porto Rico $463,228, a gain of $27,403.

Statistics now available show that the total receipts of the Italian national lottery for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, amounted to $17,926,302, an increase of $1,520,516 over the previous year, an amount never before reached during the fifty years since its organization.

The latest contribution to entertaining, the useless, statistics is made by the man who has ascertained the fact that it would require 400,000 men to produce the 70,000 horse-power of the engines of the Lusitania, and that on an eight-hour-a-day schedule it would need 5,500,000 men to drive the steamship across the Atlantic.

In 1910 France exported 4,765,490 pounds of rubber tires, valued at $5, 334,887. The sales were to all the leading countries of the world.

The British East Indies supplied the largest amount of wheat to the King-

Last year the consumption of coal in the States was 602,000,000 tons in round numbers in England 300,000,000 tons, and in Germany about 250,000,000 tons.

The county health officer of Ventura County, Cal., in his report for the year ended December 31, 1911, says that there were no births nor deaths in the population of 21,000, and no contagious diseases. Neither were there any families in the need of assistance.

It is noted that Holland has 658 millionaires, who individually possess at least $400,000 (American currency). Of these 558 there are 802 with only one million florins ($402,000); 111 have one and one-half million to two million florins; 186 from two million to five million florins; fifteen from five million to ten million florins, and only five with over ten million florins.

The sum of $500,000 has been privately subscribed in England as a fund to provide for the education of mothers, with a view to lowering the death rate among infants. A course in household science has been established at one of the modern universities, the object being to train teachers for the public schools, so that girls may in the future learn something about the care of children as a part of their regular schooling.

HIS DEATH EXPLAINED.
That Benjamin Musgrove died from heart failure was the verdict returned at the morgue last night by Coroner J. J. Thompson's jury.

Musgrove dropped dead while working on the C.P.R. siding running into the terminal Limited Oil Works on Sauratown-avenue last night. Dr. Hopkins performed the post-mortem.

A Chinese fruit grower has introduced a new variety of orange, which has some curious qualities. The fruit will hang on the tree for as long a time as three years, and the tree will bear a large crop even when the fruit of the previous year is unpecked. It is at its best in August and September, when the regular Florida varieties are most expensive.
