"Salesmanship Club," as well as g their many friends and suprs. It is the day that maximum Miss Elsie Fraser medits are expected from every member, and it is very likely that there will be many surprises between now and then.

Wednesday is the last day that new subscriptions will count on the 60,000 girra credit offer, and the last day that subscriptions will be counted on the two $500 extra cash prizes. These two extra offers mean so much to syery member that everyone will exart unusual effort.

Who Will Winners Be?

It is very likely that the winner of the $5000 home and the four big automobiles will, to a large extent. be determined by the results between now and Wednesday. Of course, it is possible that the line-up of members will be evenly matched after the extra offer closes. However, it is almost certain that some of the members will realize just what this offer means, and will take advantage of it to such an extent that when the offer closes they will have a bunch of reserve credits that will carry them thru as a winner at the close of the campaign on Aug.

When one stops to consider that 60,000 extra credits are given on every six new six-months subscriptions, or their equivalent in longer or shorter ime ones, at is then that he realizes just what this offer means. Three one-year subscriptions turned in now are equivalent to nine one-year ones without the help of the extra offer.

CHICAGO'S FIRST FATAL AIR SHIP ACCIDENT.

Hangs on Interpretation of "Issue."

ownership of perhaps $75,000,000 of the estate of Marshall Field, sr., hangs on the interpretation by the court of one word in the famous will. If it is construed that Mr. Field meant "lawful issue" when he used the word "issue," Captain Marshall Field, 3rd, probably will inherit most of the share of the course. The council prohibiting betting on race in-council prohibiting betting on race submitted to the members for validation. Captain Marshall Field, 3rd, probably will inherit most of the share of his dead brother, Henry Field.

On the other hand, if it is decided other "issue" is covered, Henry Anthony Marsh, Henry Field's son born out of wedlock, will be entitled to the late Henry Field's portion of the estate, with the exception of the dower rights of his widow, Mrs. Nancy Perkins Field.

In-council prohibiting betting on race courses, the order forbidding the manufacture, importation and transportation and transportation of alcoholic beverages and other enactments under the authority of the war measures act shall remain operative. The above is contained in a final Ottawa despatch from The Montreal Gazette which goes on to say:

When parliament prorogued, the

An attempt to forestall the claim of Mrs. Peggy Marsh for her child, and an effort on the part of Captain Field to obtain possession of the bulk of the estate, are stated as reasons for the filing of the bill. Another reason, it is understood, is to set aside the drastic trusteeship which the terms of the will provide because it limits his benefits and of Captain Marshall Field.

When parliament prorogued, the final text of the treaty of peace with Germany had not been received by the government. It was not indeed under the opinion that orders passed the authority of the defense of the realm act become void when the act itself expires. There is a tendency to take a similar view of orders passed the government. It was not indeed under the war measures act. While that the Canadian government has been in communication with the government of Great Britain and it is believed that parliament, which is to meet toward the end of September or early in October, will still be able to consider the treaty before the issue of the King's proclamation of the ter-that act will cease to have any effect.

BRITISH WARSHIPS IN BALTIC

London, July 24.—(Reuter)—In the house of commons yesterday, Right Hon. Walter Hume Long, first lord of the admiralty, stated that British warships were kept in the Baltic in order to prevent unprovoked Bolshevik raids on the coast towns of the Baltic states and Finland, interference with the feeding of the popula-tion and the spread of Bolshevik a fourth of a glass of water and use to militarism. He was satisfied the forces were sufficient. Mr. Long said a British naval force had been operating in the Caspian sea since August, 1918, against many Bolshevist armed merchantmen, destroyers and submarines. The operations would be concluded and the personnel withdrawn before winter.
