Garrison Games.

Garrison Games.

The Garrison A. A. membe's who went to train for the game on Nov. 8 and 9 can have the use of the track as the armories on Saturday afternoon and on any night of the week after 10 o'clock. In fact, this applies to any coming competitor in the big garrison indoor games. On account of the numerous entries already to hand from representatives of various corps for the sabre. foll, bayonet competition, the preliminaries have to be brought off before the officers at the armories next Wednesday night. Entry blanks at Love's or from W. H. Grant at the armories.

Reports from Ottawa state that Sou ham will be watched in to-day's gam and that the men of the capital will try and put the Tigers out of commission for the return game in Ottawa Saturday

Argos will miss Pete Flett to-day, but Meredith will fit in nicely.
