> New York, Jan. 5.—Incipient rent riots broke out on the east side today as a result of the tension between the landlords and the strikink tenants, and before the disorders were quelled by the police reserves, which were called ants were injured and five were arrested.

> The police used their clubs freely, but there was no way to obtain the number of injured, as they were hurried away and cared for by friends. The disorders were general throughout the affected districts. The most serious trouble occurred on East Eleventh street, where a landlord who had been able to collect rent ordered his tenants to remove the American and socialist flags with which the strikers had decorated the tenement. The landlord was hooted and jeered by the tenants and other strikers, who were holding a mass meeting in the house, and he called the police. The striking tenants resented the appearof Wallaceburg, have celebrated their ance of the officers and in the clash that followed the reserves used their night sticks vigorously. Five protesting tenants, somewhat battered, were arrested. The offending decorations were removed.

Hardly had order been restored at this point when the police reserves were hurried to East Twelfth street, where striking tenants were making a now in storage in Montreal for ex- demonstration against a landlord who had objected to the flying of red flags over his property. The crowd failed to obey the police order to disperse and was set upon with night sticks. One, woman, it is reported, was rendered insensible during the fight, in which wives and daughters, as well as fathers and sons, participated. The police tried to gain entrance in-
