Few pictures shown in London in the past year can compare with "Humoresque" and the capacity audiences in attendance adily leave the theatre with that self-satisfied air of having seen a photoplay, that really made them weep and clever crisp comedy. "Humoresque" should break all records for attendance at the Grand this week.

BARNUM'S SAYING STANDS
His "Sucker" Theory Exemplified in "The Jailbird."

The truth of P. T. Barnum's famous statement about "suckers," is demonstrated in pictures by "Shakespeare Clancy," the role portrayed by Douglas MacLean in his new Paramount picture, "The Jailbird," at Loew's.

Clancy puts over a "Wallingford" on the citizens of Dodson, a typical Kansas small town, but only after he has tried to get along with them and failed because of their prejudice against a young man with modern and progressive ideas. Clancy's deal takes a most unexpected turn which sreatly multiplies his fortune, and gains for him the respect and admiration of the whole town, as well as the girl who will rid him of

"The funniest play in the universe" is the way Majestic patrons describe "Cappy Ricks." that screamingly funny comedy, which is drawing capacity audiences this week to the Majestic Theatre. Every line is a laugh and from the time the curtain rises until the fall, it is one long lingering laugh. James Swift is seen in one of the best process he has yet enacted, that of Cappy Ricks, a rich old steamship owner. Miss Pates is his charming little daughter Florence, and George V. Dill is the aspirant for her hand and heart, and the three combine in making "Cappy Ricks," one of the funniest plays to be seen in London in the past year back. Cappy Ricks has stipulated that the man who takes his daughter must have $50,000, and how one Peasley (George V. Dill), gets the money, and also proves in making the old man toe the mark and see his way, forms the basis of all the merry-making. If you've wanted to laugh, but to scream at the funny lines in Cappy Ricks. It is easily the best bit of work, the Majestic Players have offered since five introduce stock in London.
