Nominations Made All Over Canada

Hon. Mr. Brodeur and W. F. Maclean Have No Contests

Two Elections by Acclamation

In Several Ontario Constituencies No Liberals Are Offering Themselves—Features of Nomination Meetings.

A LAST-HOUR OPPONENT FOR LAURIER IN QUEBEC.

There was only one election by acclamation in Ontario, W. F. Maclean, the former Conservative member for South York, being unanimously commanded by the electors of that constituency "to finish his work."

In five other constituencies no Liberal appeared. Two Conservatives are opposed to each other in Frontenac—Dr. Edwards, the nominee of the convention, and Melzer Avery, the Conservative member in the last parliament. Against Major Beattie, the former Conservative member for London, there is running J. W. McCandless, a labor man, the Liberals after several attempts having failed to get anyone who would stand.

In only two of the five Ontario Liberals contesting the election in the south—A. Claude Macdonnell's opponent is J. G. O'Donoghue, nominee of the Independent Labor Party; J. H. Duthie, a public ownership candidate, is opposed to E. B. Oeler in the west, while in the east two Conservatives are in the field—A. E. Kemp, straight, and John Russell, independent.

In Prescott, two Liberals will fight it out.

In Centre York, Capt. Thos. G. Wallace, son of the late Hon. N. C. Wallace, will oppose Dr. P. D. McLean (Lib.), who won from him in last winter's by-election by a scanty score of votes. Prospects are bright for a change. In North York, Armstrong (Con.) is spoken of as likely to give Hon. Mr. Aylesworth a real surprise.

Apparently the only election by acclamation in Quebec was in Rouville, where no opponent to Hon. L. P. Brodeur, minister of marine and fisheries, appeared, and he also is sure of his seat in the next parliament.

In Ottawa, Mr. Brodeur would have seriously interfered with the Liberal plan of campaign and the appearance of Mr. Fuglesy and his 2000 deposit may have been the result of a little last minute engineering of the Liberal chief's backers. If Sir Wilfrid Laurier had been elected in Quebec East, it would have invalidated his candidature in Ottawa City, as the law provides that no man who is already a member of parliament can be a candidate for another seat. But there had been no legal barrier to it would have injured Sir Wilfrid's chances in Ottawa if he had the Quebec seat already occupied.

Sir Wilfrid had not yet intimated which seat he will hold if elected to both. There is an impression in the capital that he will continue to represent Quebec East, and this is operating against him. Before the end of the week he may be forced to announce his intention in this regard.

The Independent Conservative, May, who threatened to oppose Wright in Muskoka, withdrew at the last moment, and there will be a straight party fight there.

In only one constituency in Ontario are there more than two candidates. The labor party has three candidates, Landers, O'Donoghue in South Toronto, and McCandless in London. The latter would not have entered had a general taken the field, and this was in doubt until the last moment.

In several Quebec constituencies the situation is complicated by the appearance of independent candidates in several ridings.

Laurier Approves.

Proceedings in connection with the nomination at Ottawa reflected the keenness of political feeling there. Thos. Birkeet, the English-speaking Conservative candidate, who spoke with a stammer, and a difficulty in getting a good hearing at the start, but stuck to his guns and later on was listened to with more attention.

Dr. J. L. Chabot, the French-Canadian Conservative candidate, spoke briefly in both languages, and got a much better hearing. The trouble broke out again when Hal McGivern, Sir Wilfrid Laurier's running mate, rose to reply. One of his auditors persisted in enquiring if Sir Wilfrid Laurier would sit for Ottawa, assuring him that he would sit for Ottawa, and that he would sit for Ottawa, and that the increases will date back to Sept. 1, when the act came into force.

At Kingston, Hon. William Hart was nominated by the Liberals, and Dr. Brodeur by the Conservatives. The meeting broke out again when Hal McGivern, Sir Wilfrid Laurier's running mate, rose to reply. One of his auditors persisted in enquiring if Sir Wilfrid Laurier would sit for Ottawa, assuring him that he would sit for Ottawa, and that he would sit for Ottawa, and that the increases will date back to Sept. 1, when the act came into force.

DISQUALIFIED AT START?

OTTAWA, Oct. 19.—(Special).—Three Conservative candidates in Quebec are disqualified at the start if lawyers here express the reading of the Elections Act.

After the general election of 1904 it was found that E. N. Lewis, M.P. for West Huron, was surety for the contractor who carried the mail from Goderich station to the postoffice, a distance of about half a mile.

Mr. Lewis could not take his seat without being liable to heavy penalties. He was therefore disqualified from taking his seat, but the government passed an act of parliament indemnifying him and he was thus relieved from the penalties provided by the general act.

If a candidate is disqualified because he is a surety for a mail carrier it does not seem reasonable that superannuated civil servants, like ex-Judge Ouimet, ex-Judge Doherty and ex-Deputy Minister of Public Works Gobeil are duly qualified candidates.

These three gentlemen have been nominated as opposition candidates in the Province of Quebec, and it would appear that as they are in receipt of emoluments from the crown they are not duly qualified to be parliamentary candidates unless they relinquish their right to their pensions and superannuation.

The law is the same in this matter in Quebec as it is in West Huron.

BRODEUR IS UNOPPOSED TO HELP LOCAL FIGHT

Otherwise Candidates Would Have Been Found—Montreal Herald Scores McAvity.

MONTREAL, Oct. 19.—(Special).—The fact of one lone county being allowed to go by default to-day by the Conservative party in the Province of Quebec is a proof that the opposition organization is much better in this part of the Dominion than most people would suppose.

Then it must not be forgotten that the unopposed return of the Hon. Mr. Brodeur, minister of marine and fisheries, to the Laurier cabinet, but has avoided responsibility for the scandals revealed by pleading it on predecessors. He has represented Rouville, Que., since 1891. In 1901 he was speaker of the house and in 1904 was called to the cabinet as minister of inland revenue. He is in his 47th year. He was called to the bar in 1884.

LAURIER HAD BUSY DAY AT ROCKLAND AND HULL

Premier Predicts Victory and Compliments Russell Liberals on Fealty to Party.

OTTAWA, Oct. 19.—(Special).—Nomination day was a busy day for the premier in the afternoon he addressed a meeting of about three thousand people at Rockland, in Russell County, in the interests of Hon. Charles Murphy, secretary of state, in the evening spoke at Hull in support of Emmanuel Devlin, the Liberal candidate in Wright County, in addition to Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Hon. Charles Devlin, minister of colonization in the Quebec Government, and a former representative of the constituency in the federal house. Probably six thousand people gathered in the skating rink to hear the addresses, and there was a great deal of enthusiasm.

The Rockland meeting was also held in a skating rink, and was preceded by a street procession. Sir Wilfrid was driven to the rink in Senator Edwards' four-in-hand, led by 100 young people mounted on horses, including a number of young ladies adorned with crowns of maple leaves.

Pre premier confidently predicted the return of the Liberal party to power, and declared that the cry that Laurier must go would not be any more effective than the old cry raised in Ontario, that Mowat must go.

Sir Wilfrid especially recommended the new secretary of state to the electors of Russell County. He thanked the Liberals of the county for having accepted him as the candidate, and said that it was characteristic of Liberalism to submerge sectional interests to the good of the party as a whole.

Sir Wilfrid leaves for Montreal tomorrow to attend the demonstration in his honor in that city.

BLAZE IN HARDWARE STORE.

Brooks-Sanford Suffer $15,000 Loss in Early Morning Fire.

Fire at 1 o'clock this morning spread up the elevator shaft of the Brooks-Sanford Hardware Co. building on Bay-street, near Adelaide, and burst through the roof.

The fire had a good hold when the firemen arrived, but Chief Thompson, assisted by Deputy Chief Noble, and District Chief Smokey, got the water into and headed the flames off after half an hour's hard work.

The damage to the building will run about $1000 and to stock about $15,000. The salvage corps did great work in spreading tarpaulins over the stock, and in this way lessened the loss considerably.

Stock taking has been in progress by the assignee, the company being $75,000, with insurance of $85,000.

Flee From Flames Scantly Robed.

GUELPH, Oct. 20.—(Special).—Fire broke out here at 12:30 this morning in the Cummings clothing store, Wyndham-street, and before it was got under control $2000 damage had been done to the store and contents. The fire crew being forced to escape scantily

FALL OF BRICK KILLS A MAN

One Dead and Four Injured in Collapse of a New Archway at the Harris Abattoir.

The vault was being constructed at the east side of the office building at the foot of Strachan-avenue. It was 15 feet 4 inches long and 11 feet 6 inches wide, and the side walls were about 20 feet high. The arch closed these walls as a roof. The work was being done by the Abattoir Company, and was begun Saturday, Oct. 10.

The brick structure was complete, and the men were removing the wooden arch, when the brickwork fell after a part of the support had been removed. The four men injured were inside the vault, while two others were working on a scaffold.

The arch collapsed without warning, carrying the workmen with the brick and a temporary floor 12 feet below to a farther distance of 8 feet.

The cause given by one man on the scene, is that the mortar used was defective, being not properly dried and defectively lined.

Dr. A. Eadie, 899 West Queen-street, was called, and frantic work was done to liberate the men from the debris. One man died a few minutes after being extricated. Coroner George W. Graham will hold an inquest to-day.

George Crossen, East Toronto, was working on a scaffold outside the structure, from which he was shaken, injuring his ankle. Mammoth Spero, 79 Berkeley-street, escaped unhurt.

TO-NIGHT.

Massey Hall will be crowded to-night—crowded earlier, too—for the Conservative mass meeting.

The speakers will be Sir James Whitney, Premier of Ontario, and local candidates.

Doors will open at 7 o'clock and the Highlanders' Band will entertain until 8.

POLICE WILL GUARD POLLS

Squad of 25 Special Men to be Sent to the Algomas to Prevent Illegal Voting.

Attorney-General Foy decided yesterday, after consultation with W. R. Hearst, M.L.A., Sault Ste. Marie, and R. R. McKessock, Sudbury, to send 25 special constables to man the polls in the unorganized districts of East and West Algoma.

Instructions have been issued to Chief Mains of Niagara Falls for the west district, and Provincial Detective Miller for the east district, to arrest any one in these polling divisions who may be found swearing falsely to residence in the lumber camps of these sections previous to August 1.

It is alleged that the voting lists have been padded with over 700 names, in violation of the terms of the Ontario Election Act, under the order of the federal government, for a special list made at last session of parliament.

CAR CRUSHES BOY'S FOOT.

Nine-Year-Old Harold Trimble Hurt Catching on Trolley.

Just as a belt line car was leaving the Yorkville car barns at 5 o'clock last evening, little 9-year-old Harold Trimble, living at 90 Spadina-street, who, in company with some other little boys of his own age, was playing on the street, attempted, boy-like, to climb on the car, but in some way he missed his hold and when he was picked up by P. C. Jackson and taken to a nearby drug store, it was found he had a badly crushed foot. He was taken to the Hospital for Sick Children, where the injured foot was dressed, but his parents would not allow of his remaining in the hospital. It is not thought that he will lose his foot. The only witnesses of the affair were a couple of other youths, who say the lad hurt was the only one to blame. The men at the car barns say it is impossible to keep the little fellows from climbing on the cars as they go out or come in.

Nominations in Toronto Exceptionally Lively—Foster and Shaw in Verbal Battle for Name of Letter Writer.

Nomination meetings in Toronto were the liveliest ever. Personalities were indulged in to greater or less extent by all the candidates, and at times the gatherings became tumultuous. The nominations brought no surprises, the candidates known to be in the field alone being nominated. They are:—North Toronto: Hon. George E. Foster, Conservative; W. H. Shaw, Liberal.

Centre Toronto: Edmund Bristol, Conservative; T. Edmondson, Labour.

West Toronto: E. B. Oeler, Conservative; J. R. Duthie, Independent.

South Toronto: A. C. Macdonnell, Conservative; J. G. O'Donoghue, Labour.

East Toronto: A. E. Kemp, Conservative; Joseph Russell, Independent Conservative.

The Conservative candidates were all members of the late parliament. Mr. Foster was first elected (King's County, N. E.) in 1885. He was defeated in St. John City in 1900 and in a by-election in North Ontario, in 1903, but was re-elected for North Toronto in 1904. He was minister of finance from 1887 until 1896, and is the most dreaded critic of the Liberal administration.

E. B. Oeler has represented West Toronto since 1880. He was elected East Toronto, since 1900; Mr. Macdonnell, South Toronto, since 1904, and Mr. Bristol, since April, 1905, succeeding the late E. B. Clarke by acclamation.

The figures in the last election were: Foster 422, Urquhart (Lib.) 430, majority 112; Macdonnell 391, H. H. Deane (Lib.) 392, majority 99; Oeler 484, A. T. Hunter (Lib.) 237, majority 181; Kemp 435, J. K. Leslie (Lib.) 192, majority 212.

Of the opposing candidates T. C. Robinette is the only one to have previously contested, and he was defeated in the last provincial election by F. Clarke by 855. Mr. Russell, as an Independent Conservative, was an unsuccessful candidate in East Toronto for the last provincial elections.

The most bitter contest is being waged in the north, where a vicious attempt is being made to defeat Foster, while the harder fight, that of the centre, which is the only uncertainty admitted by the Conservative organization.

The nominations yesterday, in West Toronto, E. B. Oeler, who is a director of the C. F. R., was quizzed from the audience by Hon. J. H. Deane, C. P. R. strike. He stated that he had done all he could do to settle it, and stated that Sir Wilfrid Laurier was greatly admired the strikers for the orderly conduct of the strike.

In South Toronto the opposing candidates clashed on the worth of the Lemieux Act.

In East Toronto Mr. Kemp resented statements made by Mr. Russell, who was a member of the board of directors of the C. F. R., and offered to place $500 against Mr. Russell's cheque for a similar sum that he could not be proved to have been willing to risk only $200.

In the Centre, the Bristol supporters badgered Robinette throughout the deliberations were not so stinging.

IN THE NORTH.

GEORGE EULAS POSTER, gentleman; agent, J. R. Starr.

WILLIAM HENRY SHAW, college principal; agent, Charles W. Keir.

The North Toronto nominations will go down in history as a breezy, to say tempestuous, affair, the proceedings ending in wild disorder on Candidate W. H. Shaw declining to reveal the identity of the writer of a letter containing a charge of misappropriation against Hon. Mr. Foster, or to withdraw it in the face of Mr. Foster's specific refusal.

The most dramatic situation was reached when Mr. Shaw, who by agreement, was allowed to speak for 10 minutes, reading from a typewritten letter, asked Mr. Foster whether he had received any profit out of a stock or bond issue in which he used Foster funds for the promotion of the Windsor, Essex & Lake Shore Railway. Mr. Foster rose to his feet, and, with utmost emphasis, declared: "Not one red cent of consideration in any way, shape or form."

A great wave of triumph rolled thru the hall. Foster supporters leaped to their feet and waved hats and wearing apparel wildly in the air. "Take it back," was shouted from over-worked lungs. Mr. Shaw in a lull said he had nothing to retract, and cries of "Shame!"
