Edward C. Lalonde, inspector of accidents, reference to whose arrival was made in the Times yesterday, visited the scene of the recent accident yesterday afternoon to investigate the circumstances in connection with the case. Although the investigation is being made entirely independent of the C. P. R. the railway is assisting Mr. Lalonde in his work.

HE WILL BE MISSED.

P. B. Lyon Goes to Toronto—A Pleasing Presentation.

P. B. Lyon of Robertson, Trites & Co., Limited, who has been secretary and buyer of the firm for the last two years, leaves for Toronto, there to take up new duties along the line of dry goods.

Last evening the employees of the firm gathered at his home, 149 Britain street, and Mr. Peterson on behalf of the employees presented to Mr. and Mrs. Lyon for their departure a gold chain and monogram brooch. Mr. and Mrs. Lyon gratefully acknowledged the beautiful gift.

Mr. Lyon will be much missed in St. John, as he was a very popular young man, and his friends here will wish him every success in his new field of labor. Mr. Lyon has been a prominent figure in sporting circles here, having formerly been president of the St. John's Golf and Country Club, and for the last few seasons has managed some of the leading sports here. During the past winter he looked after the interests of Jimmy Price in good shape and he has always been very keen in all matters pertaining to speed skating. The Times joins his many friends in wishing him success.

R. K. Y. CLUB SMOKER.

A Fine Entertainment Was Provided Last Evening.

The R. K. Y. C. held their last monthly smoker last night, and it was very much enjoyed by the large number present. The following programme was successfully carried out:

Selections by the Club Orchestra; Song with chorus, J. B. Harding; Reading, A. W. Baird; Song, Col. Hagan; Saxophone Duet, Rogers, Jones and Edleston; Song, E. W. Brewster; Buck and Wing dance, Chase, Nye; Banjo solo, Gilbert Davidson; Song, David Flanagan; Song, Ernest Bowman; Song, Mrs. Hollands; of Montreal; Comic songs, Fred Jones, of the Harkins Co.; Recitation by Mr. Turk, of Montreal; Speech and staccato, Almaras McGoldrick; Whistling solo, W. R. Nickson; Song, Fred McKean. Refreshments were served during the evening.

BEER AND POOL.

Temperance People Will Probably Ask For Reform.

It is stated on good authority that the temperance people are advocating a change in the law governing pool-rooms and beer shops. It is also understood that the first move in this direction, was made on Tuesday night, when Eben Perkins, Rev. A. J. Frouser, and Police Sergeant Kilpatrick, visited the north end pool-rooms.

A delegation from the city temperance societies will probably be sent to Fredericton, and the tour of inspection was evidently conducted with a view to obtaining more intelligent ideas of the subject. It seems, too, that there has been a good deal of complaint about young lads frequenting these places, especially, as it is claimed, they are kept out late at night.

NEWS FROM NORTH END

Mill Will Start.

The Stetson & Outier mill at Indiantown will begin operations Saturday. This will be the earliest commencement in years. The firm owning this mill has a considerable quantity of logs on hand, and it is expected the full mill crew will be at work within a fortnight. During the winter repairs were made to the mill's gear and machinery, which is now in excellent condition. For three weeks past an expert chimney builder has been making secure the towering shaft of masonry.

Will Sing at Main Street.

Miss Mamie McConnell of Marysville will sing at the evening service in Main Street Baptist church on Sunday. Miss McConnell favored this church with solo last Sunday which was much enjoyed.

Navigation.

"River Navigation will open inside of two weeks," so said John Landon of Lewis Cove this morning. He describes the ice to be weakening fast, and turning black, a sign that it will hold together for a very short time. At many places the ice is too thin to allow driving now.

Ice is running freely into Indiantown today, choking the Lancaster ferry slip, filling the cove, and even blocking the "bedroom" dock. A very pretty sight is that of watching the large oaks of ice going through the falls. They are broken and crumbled as they emerge from among the watery whirls on their way into the lower harbor.

Minor Notes.

The tea given yesterday afternoon in Union Hall by the "Y's" of the C. P. U. was a grand success. Mrs. Gilbert Dykeman and Mrs. G. P. Hawkhurst were in charge. They were assisted by Mrs. L. D. Parks, Mrs. W. Scott, Mrs. F. R. Patterson, Miss Nelson, Miss Scott and Miss Hamilton.

Praises Chief Clarke.

Judge Wedderburn Says the City Should Not Have the Appointment.

In county court chambers this morning, while the case of White vs. Hamer was being argued, his honor, Judge Wedderburn, took occasion to make some very complimentary remarks concerning Chief Clarke. He contended that it was proper that the appointment of the chief of police should be vested in the government and not in the common council, as the position was an important one, and should be free from petty political feelings. He thought that as the council of the city was subject to change every year it would not be well to have a position such as that of chief of police vested in a body that was liable to change its feelings as to the appointee to the office. He considered that the present Chief was the right man in the right place. He was a most competent and hard-working official, and has kept the police force up to a high and efficient standard. He was a thoroughly competent business man and his work was always well and faithfully performed.

PRODUCE SCARCE.

Today's Prices in the Country Market—Roads are Bad.

The scarcity of produce at the country market continues. The supply this morning being very meagre. The roads are said to be in such a condition that the countrymen do not care to risk coming into the city. On many of the roads there is still good sleighing, but the farmers would need a combination of runners and wheels to negotiate both the city and country roads. Next week will probably see a change for the better, but at present the variety of produce to be secured from is not very extensive.

The retail prices are as follows: Turkey, 22c-24c lb.; ducks, $1.50-$2.00; chickens, 15c-18c; geese, $1.40-$1.75; veal, 8c-14c; western beef, 12c-18c; lamb and mutton, 7c-14c; pork, 12c; dried beef, 18c; hams and bacon, 10c-18c; carrots and beets, 30c; turnips, 30c; cabbage, 10c-15c; squash, 4c lb.; potatoes, 20c; tomatoes, 80c; cucumbers, 10c; mushrooms, 40c; can. tub. butter, 20c-24c lb.; henry eggs, 30c; case eggs, 24c doz.

POLICE REPORTS.

Harry Kominsky has been reported for driving business in the city without a license. George Smith has been reported for working in the city without a license. The police ejected a man and woman from Jeremiah Tyrone's house on Brook street last night.

THE LOG CUT.

A prominent lumber dealer from up the St. John river is in the city. In conversation with a Times reporter this morning he said that he was prepared to make the prediction that $6,897,000 will pass over the Grand Falls this spring. In the last two years, he says, the drive was about 750,000,000.

THE COMMON COUNCIL MEETS THIS AFTERNOON.

Communications to be Dealt With—Threatened Law Suit—A Fishery Squabble—British Capital and the Port of St. John.

The common council is in session this afternoon. The assessment has to be ordered before April 15th, and consequently it was essential to call the meeting for today.

A number of communications have been received. Ellen Jansson applied for the position of scrubbing and cleaning in the east end side-pull-houses. Robert Lee Brittain, stenographer and assistant, at City Hall, asked that his pay be increased to $40 a month.

Daniel Mullin notified the council that he has been retained by Wm. McArthur, to commence action against the city with a view to recovering compensation for loss of injury sustained by him on or about Jan. 2nd. It appears that Mr. McArthur was working on Puters St., and he alleges that while carrying a bundle of mouldings a city team with snowplow attached, driven by Joe Saunders, ran him against the door. He claims he was compelled to give up work.

Free from petty political feelings. He thought that as the council of the city was subject to change every year it would not be well to have a position such as that of chief of police vested in a body that was liable to change its feelings as to the appointee to the office. He considered that the present Chief was the right man in the right place. He was a most competent and hard-working official, and has kept the police force up to a high and efficient standard. He was a thoroughly competent business man and his work was always well and faithfully performed.

MINORS AND POOL PLAYING.
A Fine Imposed in a Case That Was Up Today.

The case against Wm. R. Pendleton, of Mill street, came up before Judge Ritchie this morning.

Mr. Pendleton was charged with allowing minors to play pool in his establishment on Mill street. The boys named in the report are James Burke, Walter Logan, Thomas Ramer, and James Bond.

Mr. Pendleton denied the charge and stated that he never allowed boys to remain in his poolroom, unless he knew their parents approved of it. He produced a number of communications, which he said were from the parents of boys who played there. He admitted that two lads who had not parents, had played there Monday night, but upon finding out who they were he had stopped them.

The defendant was fined $10, or thirty days imprisonment.

men, had she not interfered. Witness stated that the bull-dog was not inclined to be quarrelsome, and only fought when encouraged to do so.

Albert Holme was next placed on the stand and emphatically denied the statements made by Mrs. Cullum. Holme stated further that he had just come into the alley and was talking to a young woman who lives in the same house as Mrs. Cullum. He heard some dogs fighting up the street, and, on going out, found that the dogs referred to were fighting. He and Mr. King tried to part them. In reply to a question from the plaintiff, witness said that he had not set the dogs fighting.

The next witness sworn was the young woman to whom Holme was talking when the fight began. When asked to give her name she declined to answer. In reply to a question she stoutly declared she was not ashamed of it and finally informed the court that she would tell them who she was. Her evidence was in favor of the defendant.

Mrs. Cullum asked the witness if she had seen the dogs fighting to which she replied that she had not. Mrs. Cullum—What were you and Holme talking and laughing at?

Witness, (laughing)—"That's my business."

Mrs. Cullum produced the collar dog, which, she claims, is not her own, but was left in her care. Its ears were quite badly torn.

Violet Hanlon was next examined, and her evidence showed the plaintiff had struck the collar with a stick. Otherwise her evidence was unimportant.
