Local News
A large fleet of windbound schooners left port this morning for Nova Scotia and United States ports.

Between ten and eleven o'clock last night the police were summoned to Charles O'Dell's house on Chesley street, to quell a disturbance.

The steamer St. Croix, Captain Thompson, arrived last night from Boston with 50 passengers and a large freight. She sailed this morning on her return trip.

The United Baptist churches of the city will unite in holding a Thanksgiving service in Brussels street church at 11 a.m. on Thursday.

All who attend at Glad Tidings Hall, Brussels street, to-morrow evening will be amply repaid by the efforts of the Junior Fourth League of Exmouth street church who have provided an excellent entertainment in the form of a concert.

The china tea set, offered by J. J. McGaffigan, Ltd., to the person who estimated the nearest to the correct number of people who paid for admission to the Fredericton exhibition, was won by Edward E. Duffy of St. Marys (N.B.), whose guess was 24,493.

The attention of the Times was called yesterday to the condition of the road on Douglas avenue. It is stated that after every rain storm potholes are formed in the road, which, if promptly filled in with broken stone, would keep the road in the excellent condition it has been in until lately.

A WATCH AND A BOARD BILL
Constable McLeod Plays Detective and Recovers Both.
Constable McLeod, who does duty at the Opera House, played the role of the detective last night.

A certain gentleman residing in this city discovered that he had lost his watch in some mysterious manner, and forthwith immediately consulted the constable. Enquiry revealed the information that the gentleman in question was the possessor of a young lady in the north end and who evidently wished to prove that she was not slow.
