EGGS AND BUTTER ARE CHEAPER NOW

Both Have Dropped Off a Few Cents—This Week's Prices in Country Market.

Indications point to a good supply of produce at the country market for tomorrow's trade. Eggs have dropped considerably during the last few days and this morning were quoted at 15 and 16 cents per dozen for those in case, while home-made eggs are obtainable at 18 to 20 cents a dozen. Butter has also dropped off a few cents and is now quoted at from 20 to 22 cents a pound. Lamb is very scarce and the price is consequently a little stiff.

Foys and chickens are also rather scarce and are bringing good prices. In other lines the quotations are much the same as last week, following is the list:

Veal 8 to 10c; lamb, 8 to 10c quarter; mutton, 12 to 15c; choice Canadian beef, 14 to 20c; pork, 14 to 16c; sweetbreads, 15c; calves hauled, 20c; chickens 12 to 22.00 pair; fowl, 8 to 11.00 pr; turkeys 20 to 25c; case eggs 18 to 16c; doz; henney eggs, 18 to 20c; spinach, 40c. pk; lettuce, 6c; celery 20 to 25c; cabbage, 10 to 15c; cucumbers, 10 to 12c; each; tomatoes, 25c. pound; radishes, 6c. parsley, 5c. Maple syrup is selling for $1.25 a gallon retail and for $1 to $1.10 wholesale. Pure maple sugar is quoted at 18 to 18 cents a pound retail and 15 to 14 cents, wholesale.

PAULINE SCORES AGAIN

The great Pauline entertained a good sized audience at the Opera house last night.

Beyond doubt Pauline is one of the most remarkable men seen here in many years. Last evening there was amusement galore.

The most noteworthy number of the programme was the six young men on the stage imagining themselves monkeys.

Many of the spectators, who up to this time were rather dubious about the genuineness of the performance, stood in awe when they saw how readily the monkey climbed from the pit to the first balcony and ran along the floor on his hands and knees.

There are many different feats performed which are extremely funny as well as wonderful. Pauline will continue his exhibition all week.

Mrs. Chas Christie wishes to thank her many friends for their kindness during her late bereavement.

THE SATURDAY HALF HOLIDAY

Indications Are Bright That St. John Will Enjoy It Again This Year.

Indications look pretty bright now that the clerks in the various business establishments which enjoyed the Saturday half holiday last year and previous years will again be able to enjoy that privilege this summer.

Yesterday the hardware merchants signed an agreement to close their stores during the summer months as soon as Saturday, and the blacksmiths have also decided on the same action. It is now up to the dry goods, boot and shoe, hat merchants and others to fall in line and make the movement general.

It is understood that two of the leading dry goods stores have announced their intention to take the same action, and that it only remains for some of the merchants to decide to make it an accomplished fact.

The clerks have not taken any strong stand on the matter yet, preferring to leave it to the employers for a reasonable time and hoping to have a favorable decision without the necessity of the usual agitation. It is thought that within the next few days the majority of the merchants will make an announcement, concluding Saturday afternoon to the employees.

FUNERAL OF S. SCHOFIELD

Large and Representative Cortege Follows Body to The Grave.

A large and representative body of citizens followed the remains of the late Samuel Schofield to their last resting place today.

The cortege left his late residence, 122 Charlotte street, shortly before 2:30 o'clock and the body was taken to Trinity church where the burial service was conducted by the rector, Rev. Canon Richardson, assisted by the curate, Rev. W. B. Stewart.

Professor Ford presided at the organ and the choir under the direction of A. C. Ritchie, chairman, rendered appropriate hymns.

The pall-bearers were W. H. Thorne, Geo. E. Patterson, C. E. L. Jarvis, J. Russell Armstrong, Geo. Robertson, M. P. P., and John E. Irvine.

The members of the board of trade assembled at their rooms at 2 o'clock and attended in a body.

There were many beautiful floral tributes, among which may be mentioned a wreath of roses, carnations, azalea, smiling and maidenhair fern, from Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Schofield; a bouquet composed of lilies, roses, stocks, and carnations, from Mrs. Henry Wilson; a wreath of white carnations, roses and maidenhair fern, from Dr. Brodeur; a beautiful floral casket of roses and carnations, from Frederick X. Robinson; a beautiful cross composed of lilies, roses and carnations from Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Blair, Montreal; Easter lilies from H. B. Schofield; and others.

Interment was made in the family lot at Fernhill.

COMING OF KIRK BROWN.

As Mr. Brown has a large personal following his appearance as a star promise to be one of the most successful engagements of the season. Mr. Brown enters the popular field with every assurance of a brilliant future. As the dramatic season advances the various engagements, which he is filling are becoming more and more akin to ovals.

The star has been fortunate enough to surround himself with an excellent company and to secure a particularly choice line of plays; Under the Red Robe, a great romantic drama, has been selected for the opening bill Monday evening, and will be followed by The Lady of Lyons, By Right of Sword, The Christian, David Garrick, Alone in London, Sherlock Holmes, Shannan of the Sixty, and other great plays.

POLICE COURT

Leonard Doherty and Samuel Redmond were fined $4 or ten days each this morning in the police court for drunkenness.

William Brennan, a young man, was given a severe reprimand by Judge Ritchie for being drunk and was fined $8 or two months in jail. His Honor informed him that the next time he was arrested for drunkenness he would be sent to jail without the option of a fine.

George Albert, the colored prisoner, was arrested on the east side ferry float for drunkenness, and Judge Ritchie told him that he was going to give the full penalty to all drunkards found around the ferry house. He fined Albert $8, who went to appeal for leniency. In a very short time the judge said, "You have been drinking bad rum and I would sooner be five yards away from you than one yard." Albert's fine was paid by his mother.

The case against Amelia Francis and that against Mrs. Wilcox, Mrs. Doherty and Peter Britts are being heard this afternoon.
