CARD OF THANKS

Women who lead a domestic life seem to listen to every call of duty excepting the supreme one that tells them to guard their health. As long as they can drag themselves around women continue to work. Necessity to keep on their feet all day when over-tired, or sitting in cramped positions day in and day out often brings on ailments from which women suffer tortures. For fifty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegatable Compound has been strengthening women and overcoming such allments. Sickness and pain vanish under its influence and thousands of women have been benefited by it.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Mrs. A. Ernest Goss entertained several small friends of her little son, Rowley Ruel, at her home 389 Union street, on his third birthday. A large birthday cake, decorated with three bright red candles, and the usual array of novelties inside, graced the centre of the table. The color scheme was received a favor tied in green and red crepe paper. Among those present were Misses Barbara Hennigar, Rose-bud Maxwell, Francis and Katherine Colwell, Timmie and Helen Tapley, Dorothy Denniston, Marion Tomlinson, Harvey Hedley Hennigar, Billie Clawson, Harold Wood, Guy Tapley, Fletcher and Norris Pettis, Freddie Dearborn.

Only 16 years old, Kathleen Kersting of Wichita Is Kansas' first prima donna. She will make her operatic debut in "Marguerite" in Rome next March. In her Rome appearance the American girl will wear the same costume which Mme. Calve work when she made her debut many years ago.

CARRIE JOY NAME

Beatrice Calnek Wins Telegraph-Journal Contest-Little Sisters Next.

"Carrie Joy" is the name that has been selected as most appropriate for the beautiful Mama dolls which The Telegraph-Journal is soon to distribute to the little girls of St. John.

Beatrice Calnek, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. S. H. Calnek, 191 Princess street, is the little girl who chose this name and she will receive her doll today, While "Carrie Joy" was declared the nicest and most appropriate name by the judges many other excellent names were received and the task of selecting Many of the little girls may think that the one chosen but, after all, it is matter of taste. The name that appeals to one does not appeal to another. There were seven judges and

Half Million Stolen

Securities Found

Youngstown, Ohio, Nov. 21.—Bonds and stocks valued at about half a million dollars, said to have been stolen from Bentley's Bank at Springobro, Penn., were found in a city park here and have been recovered by postul authorities, it was announced here today by Postmaster Edward Weston and Postal Inspector Harry Tavinor. That the men who found the money, all foreigners, were not fully aware of the value of their find was indicated when the foreman of one man, who works in a steel mill said that last night he found the man wearing two $1,000 Liberty bonds for an apron.

Calve work when she made her debut and they were unanimous in choosing "Carrie Joy." "Carrie Joy." was decided best because it is a very simple name, it is easy for the smallest girl to pronounce and understand, the dolls will really "carry joy" to every little girl who gets one and both "Carrie" and "Joy" are real names.

Beatrice Calnek, the winner of the doll, will be four years old on Feb. of and her mother chose the name which has been selected as the winner. But if she is not old enough to select a name for her doll Beatrice is quite Joid enough to take a very keen delight in owning the doll that walks, talks, sleeps and rolls its eyes. Beatrice has no brothers or sisters and the doll is here to dother. There were seven judges and they were unanimous in choosing "Carrie Joy." "Carrie Joy."

in owning the doll beatrice is quite oid enough to take a very keen delight in owning the doll that walks, talks, sleeps and rolls its eyes. Beatrice has no brothers or sisters and the doll is certainly going to carry joy to her home. The doll looks a bit like Beatrice, who has golden brown hair and sparkling blue eyes.

But all the other little girls who sent in names must not be disappointed as there is still a chance for them to win one of Carrie Joy's little sisters and an announcement about how they can do this will be made tomorrow or on Monday in The Telegraph-Journal.

Some of the names that were most favored in the contest were Pollyanna, Winniffred Blair, Orphan Annie, Princess Mary, and Mary. There were many quite unusual names sent in and amongst them several in which the name Telegraph-Journal was cleverly abbreviated. "Tillygraff" was one of these last.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dean were pleasantly surprised last evening when they were invited to the home of their daughter, Mrs. Charles Brigden, 107 Moore street, and on their arrival found about 50 friends present to celebrate their 36th wedding anniversary. Still another surprise was accorded them when relatives from Waverley, Mass., Mrs. Henry Sherman and Miss Helen Sherman, appeared among the guests. On behalf of the company present, Charles Stevens presented to the "bride and groom" a well-filled purse and a gold piece, the latter from the Sherman family. Mr. and Mrs. Dean thanked their friends for the welcome occasion. Games and music then were enjoyed and refreshments were served by Mrs. Brigden, assisted by Mrs. George Lewis, Mrs. Charles Stevens and Mrs. Fred Miller.
