PRIZE WINNERS IN "EVERYWOMAN" CONTEST

Merry Battle For Theatre Tickets
Clothes—Prizes Mailed Today

After careful scrutiny and long arduous hours the judges in the Imperial Theatre "Everywoman" contest have decided upon the winners of the free tickets for Friday night's grand opening performance. The list handed to the theatre manager contains the following names and the awards:

First prize—(Tie) Louise Campbell, Kenford, N. B., who gets half the award as stipulated in the conditions, namely; three $2 box seats.

First prize—(Tie) Alice L. Warlock, 228 Pitt street, who also gets three box seats at $2 each.

Second prize—(Tie) Mrs. A. Ellison, 805 Rockland road, who gets half the award, namely two best orchestra $1.50 seats.

Second prize—(Tie) Mrs. Russell Jenkins, 186 Broad street, who likewise receives two best orchestra seats.

Third to ninth prizes—One orchestra ticket—Florence E. Edwards, Portland Library, N. E.; Mrs. E. O. Heans, 70 City Road; Miss Edna Macaulay, 136 Broad street; Miss Elsie Sims, Manawagonish road, Fairville; Mrs. W. Tansley, 142 Duke street; Miss C. M. Goodrich, Fairville; Mrs. C. V. Vincent, 18 Richmond street.

The tickets with seat coupons were mailed to the respective winners in today's mail and should reach the owners in plenty of time for the Friday night performance. There were hundreds of contestants and a few misunderstandings concerning the advertisements to be scrutinized. The judges held that all the advertising on the page was allowable, excepting the type matter dealing with the conditions.

It was a merry battle and some of the answers were filed two hours after the Times was on the street last Saturday. Others played the limit. There will be some mild disappointments no doubt, and a few who will receive what they deserve. $25.50 worth of "Everywoman" and Times newspaper hospitality.

The appeal of the Canadian Universal Film Company from the decision of the New Brunswick board of motion picture censors in regard to the film "Sins of the Sexes," has been dismissed by Mr. Justice Barry of the Supreme Court of New Brunswick, and as a result the decision of the board of censors, prohibiting the exhibition of the film in this province stands as when made.

Premier W. E. Foster told The Telegram yesterday that it had not been decided by the company as yet just when the keel of the second ship to be built at St. Martins would be laid. The outlook is, however, that the company will begin the construction of a second ship as soon as conditions will permit.
