Boston Arrangements

(Boston Post)

One important item regarding the coming world's series between the Braves and Athletics is an accomplished fact. The business of receiving, passing on the filing applications for seats in the reserved sections by Secretary Nickerson of the Boston National league club and his big corps of assistants, was completed yesterday afternoon.

It was a task of great magnitude, as may be surmised, but progress has been steady since the start was made last Friday afternoon. The work has gone forward without a hitch, so that all is in readiness for the next step, the formal notification of the actual distribution of the pasteboards. (Boston Post)

Walk Up and Pay

Each applicant whose application has been honored will in a day or so receive notification by mail that his tickets are awaiting him on receipt of the sum named on his notification card. The date of the actual purchase of the tickets remains to be decided upon. When this is announced the fortunate possessor of the blue notification card will only have to call at the ticket booth named on his card, pay over his money and receive his ticket or tickets.

Many applicants have made the mistake of enclosing checks or money orders with their applications.

It is to be emphasized that no transfer of cash or its equivalent for tickets will be made until the opening of the ticket booths at Fenway Park for that purpose. In every instance where checks or money orders have been received with applications they have been returned.

The offices will remain open for the reception of applications as long as possible. But it is a matter of fact that the work on the applications is completed.
All that remains is the Allotment of Favor the Local Fans

Regular patrons of the game in Boston and Boston fans in general will naturally be given preference. Particular pains have been taken to insure that each applicant is given an equal chance with everyone else to secure his requests. To this end no request for big blocks of seats has been honored. The average number of seats granted applicants is two.

To date the list of applications includes the names of practically every man of public prominence in the city and suburb. His Eminence Cardinal

We are bound to have variety in our specialty acts. This week the vaudeville consists of The Vynos, man and woman, who present their world-famous "Musical Farmyard." As the name implies, it is an harmonious get-up of fences, trees, cattle, pet stock, pails, pump, etc., which in the hands of the Vynos make pleasing tunes. This is a sort of trick act, pretty and quiet. It is sure to please everybody. It will appear for the first time at 8.30 Monday afternoon and at the same hour each matinee as well as at 8 and 9 o'clock p.m. It is an especial treat for the little folks. the Alice Joyce feature, "The Old the gruesome photos, but instructive and authentic views of the war zone and its combatants. A LITTLE TALK FROM UNCLE SI:

You know, by heck, that eer playhouse pretty night Princess street, on Charlotte, in to town, puts up a blame good show.

Mandy and me hitched up old Dobbin this mornin' and druv in just a purpose to see them play-actors cuttin' up all kinds of the gosh durndest funniest capers I ever laid my eyes on. Today we'er a goin' to see Kendall and Hickey what the bill outside the door says is better'n a huskin' Bee any old time, 'cordin' to that bill that feller and gal is just goin' to set things a hummin' today. The bill also says that they spurt 'round on their feet quicker than Si Forshay did when our old heifer landed on him t'other day and knocked him clean across to Jim Cushin's old mill.

I didn't hev my specks on when I was readin' that bill, but Mandy says it also said there's goin' to be some singing what got the queer down to Caledonia skun forty ways.

Then they got what they call the BIG "M" Picture show—the Musician's Wife; Money Lender; Mabel's Married Life, and all of 'em are pretty good, I reckon.

good, I reckon.

Well, folks, goin' down to the Market now an' sell the butter an' eggs, then me and Mandy Lender; Mabel'ood time at the LYRIC.
