

Q. Where is your home?

A. Stony Plain, Alberta, sir.

Q. What address did you give as your home address when you were enrolled?

A. Stony Plain.

Q. And who did you give as your next of kin?

A. My mother.

Q. And she lives at Stony Plain.

A. Yes, sir.

Q. How many brothers did you say you have at home?

A. Just the one at home.

Q. Just one brother at Stony Plain only.

A. Well there is two more there but one is trucking and the other is farming.

Q. How far away is the brother who is farming from your home?

A. About a mile sir.

Q. And the one who is trucking, does he live in Stony Plain?

A. Right in town sir.

Q. Does he work for a trucking firm or has he a private truck?

A. A private truck sir.

Q. Does he work it from the farm or from the town?

A. From the town sir.

Q. What do you use to work the farm, horses or machinery?

A. Horses, sir.

Q. How old is your father?

A. Sixty sir.

Q. And how old is this brother who is at home?

A. Twenty-four, sir.

Q. This brother who lives a mile away, couldn't he have helped your brother who is at home on the farm?

A. Well, we asked him sir but he said he couldn't see his way through.