URGE WASTE LAND USE.
Washington.—America must be healthy while Europe adjusts itself, said Edgar Wallace, A. F. of L. legislative representative, before the house committee on irrigation of arid lands that is considering appropriations for irrigation, reclamation of swamp lands and reclamation of cut-over lands.

"In the olden days," said the trade unionist, "when the west lay open, there was a natural method of adjusting wages and conditions. Whenever we were dissatisfied we could go west and take up a farm. We could go out into the country and the industrial condition naturally adjusted itself, but this land that could be used immediately is now all taken. But here we have a project that will in effect not only immediately develop a large amount of land but will continuously develop more and more land, making a natural outlet, a natural safety valve, for the dwellers of the cities and the industrial centers, and it can be carried into effect, result in vast benefits to the country and in developing the finest specimen of American manhood."

"We can best serve this country by a program of development within our country, and the congress, the administration, should recognize that some such effort must be made to meet the situation here and now."

Mr. Wallace declared that the proposal is the most productive in the way of stimulating industry. To this statement Congressman Summers replied: "To this we are all agreed."

MANY CHILDREN EMPLOYED.
Philadelphia.—State reports on this city's industries show that there were 2,519 boys and 2,939 girls under the age of 16 employed in 1920. The total number of all employees was 317,601, of which approximately 20 per cent., or 59,537, were aliens. The figures show that the boasted "American plan" that is urged by captains of industry in this city only applies to conditions in their shops.

The value of manufactured goods during the year totalled $2,343,626,700, an increase of $31,000,000 over the value of products in 1919.

TRIDENT enclosed gear train construction does not decrease the efficiency of the Trident Breakable Bottom. The protective compound, having a lower freezing point than water, still further reduces the likelihood of damage to the gear train. Exhaustive tests under service conditions have proved these statements.
