

C&C Announcements

Four girls and one boy tried the Entrance Examination to the Collegiate and all passed. Alice Henkeimer completed her course at the Business College - and two girls took first class honors at the Conservatory of Music exams.

Three girls can play the church service, and several can play for prayers.

Presents

The Department sent us a map case, and two maps for the Senior School which were badly needed.

The militia Department sent us 55 returned mens suits, which we will remake into school and work suits. Also 2 collar badges, and a cap badge for 55 boys.

Gen. Ashton has lent us his large collection of Indian curios, which are a great addition to our reception room. Also two large bookcases and part of his library which will greatly help to furnish the living room in the Principals flat - at present unfurnished. He also gave us a quantity of drugs and medical supplies and the School purchased some - we will require more drugs than usual to build up after the "flu".

Health

Cornelia Thomas, was sent to the hospital for mastoid operation - was there several weeks - made good recovery.

Had one severe case of scarfeula -
