THE LUMBER MARKET. Farnworth & Jardine's wood circuthus speaks of the New Brunswick and Nova Scotia spruce and pine deals: Of spruce the import has been enormous, and following on the excessive arrivals of last month has had a serious effect on the market, and sales can now only be made with difficulty; the deliveries, which appear large, in-clude a quantity in the Manchester clude a quantity in the Manchester canal, although not sold, and the already excessive stock of 27,979 standards should therefore be increased to this extent, probably 10,000 standards; values have declined throughout the month, and unless more discretion is shown in forcing forward shipments, even present low rates will be difficult to meintain. Ping deals have been been to maintain. Pine deals have been in full demand.

PREMIER LAURIER.

The Arrangements for Sir Wilfrid's Reception and Entertainment While in the City,

(Daily Sun, September 14.) Sir Wilfrid Laurier will arrive in the city by the C. P. R. express today at 12.45 local time. He will be given a right royal welcome by the mayor, platform has been erected at the depot, on which will be the mayor and corporation, members of legislatures and others. On arrival of the C. P. R. train from Montreal the car containing Sir Wilfrid Laurier will be stopped as near as may be to the platform, on which he will step. On the middle track in the station a flat car nicely fenced in and trimmed with gay colored ribbons will be placed and on it will be a band, which will discourse sweet music before and after the arrival of the train. All operations in the station will be stopped while the welcome on behalf of the city is being presented to the premier and he is re-plying. After the ceremonies there the premier and other ministers will walk along a raised platform to the door and be driven to the Dufferin premier and his colleagues will be lriven to the exhibition grounds, entering through the main door, and will be received by a guard of honor from the 62nd Fusiliers in command of Capt. Manning. If the weather is fine the party will proceed to the grand stand on the grounds, where the president of the Exhibition association, W. C. Pitfield, will extend a welcome to the premier and introduce him to the public. If not fine this will take place from the grand stand in the building: After the introduction Sir Wilfrid will speak and formally de-clare the exhibition open. Then, after viewing all that is to be seen, the distinguished visitor with the other cabinet ministers will probably go for a short drive around the city, after which Sir Wilfrid Laurier will dine.

About eight o'clock he will be taken in a barouche to the agricultural hall, exhibition grounds, where he will again be received by a guard of honor under command of Capt. Kaye. The premier will hold a reception on the upper floor. He will take his stand at the side of the room about midway between the stairs. The centre of the room will be enclosed by a railing. Visitors on entering the building will present their cards to the officers in attendance, who will call out their names and they will be presented to the premier and other gentlemen pres-ent and then pass around the railing to the centre of the room or out into the ground as they like. After the re-ception the premier, who will have spent a busy day, will be taken to the hotel stitution was totally destroyed by fire this evening. The fire was discovered shortly before nine o'clock, and a general alarm sounded in the city, but as the institution is located be-yond the fire limit on the hill below the university, the department was powerless to render much assistance. The building was of brick and only established a few years ago, chiefly through the efforts of Prof. Woodbridge, who has so successfully conducted the school. The loss is a serious Tuesday night, which in some places one, and will effect the whole provingured the blueberries.
