LONDON, Oct. 21.—A Glencoe Camp correspondent, telegraphing yesterday, says that a force of 6,000 Boers, led by Commandant Gen. Joubert, has been defeated severely by a force under Gen. Symons. At the time of sending the despatch the fighting was still going on, but the defeat of the enemy was already complete and crushing, and it looked as though few would escape. This correspondent placed the British loss as probably three hundred killed or wounded, and that of the Boers three times as many.

DETAILS OF THE BANTLE. GLENCOE CAMP, Oct. 20 (afternoon).-The battle today has been a brilliant success. The Boers got a reverse which may possibly, for a time at any rate, check all aggressive ac-

The British artillery practice in the early part of the day decided the bat-tle. The seizure of Dundee Hill by the Boers was a surprise, for although the pickets had been exchanging shots all night, it was not until a shell boomed over the town into the camp that their presence was discovered. Then the shells came fast. The hill was positively alive with the swarming Boers. Still the British artillery got to work with magnificent energy and precision. The batteries from the camp took up positions to the south of the town, and after a quarter of an hour's magnificent firing silenced the guns on the

The correspondent could see shells dropping among the Boer pieces with remarkable accuracy and doing tremendous execution, for the enemy were present in very large numbers and in places considerably exposed.

and the Dundee Kopje, right away to the south, in which direction the Brit-ish infantry and cavalry moved at once. The fighting raged particularly hot at the valley outside the town. Directly the Boer guns ceased firing Gen. Symons ordered the infantry to move on the position. The infantry charge was magnificent. The way the King's Royal Rifles and the Dublin Fusiliers stormed the position was one of the most splendid sights ever seen. The firing of the Boers was not so deadly as might have been expected from the troops occupying such an excellent po-sition, but the infantry lost heavily going up the hill, and only the consummately brilliant way in which General Symons had trained them to fighting of the kind saved them from being swept away.

Indeed the hill was almost inacces sible to the storming party and any hesitation would have lost the day. The enemy's guns, so far as the correspondent could see, were all abandoned, for the Boers had no time to remove them. A stream of fugitives poured down the hillside into the valley, where the battle went on with no abatement.

GEN. SYMONS WOUNDED. Gen. Symons was wounded early in the action, and the command then devolved on Major Yule. The enemy, as they fled, were lowed by the cavalry, mounted infantry and artillery. The direction taken was to the eastward. At the latest reports the cavalry had not re-Some say that four and some say five guns have been captured. Boer artillery firing was weak. A lot of plugged shells were used. Although the enemy's position was carried soon after one o'clock, scattered firing went on almost all the The Brish losses are very severe, but those of the Boers are much heavier.

THE FINAL RUSH. The final rush was made with triumphant yell and as the British troops charged to close quarters the enemy turned and fied, teaving all their impediments and guns behind them in their precipitate flight.

While this was going on, one battery of artillery, the 18th Hussars, and the mounted infantry, with a part of the Leicester regiment, got on enemy's flank, and as the Boers streamed wildly down the hill, making for the main road, they found their retreat had been cut off, but they rallied for a while and there was severe firing, with considerable loss or both sides. Many of the enemy sur-

ENGAGEMENT NEAR MAFEKING LONDON, Oct. 21.- The Mafeking correspondent of the Daily Mail, writing on Oct. 14th, says:

An uproarious scene ensued, Mr. Redmond attempted to continue and his voice being drowned by the cheers of the Irish members and cries of "order," and "withdraw," from the opposition benches

The chairman at length being able to make himself heard, asked Mr. Redmond if he declined to withdraw. The latter replied that he did not wish to be discourteous, but he maintained his right to protest that the money ought to be spent in Ireland, adding: "I will not withdraw. It is mere rob-

Mr. Balfour replied that the dictates of humanity and civilization would ensure that. On the announcement to the house by Mr. Balfour that General Symons was mortally wounded, all the members uncovered, the debate was stopped and a vote of £10,000,000 was car

MR. BOURASSA DISPLEASED. MCNTREAL, Oct. 20.-The sensation of the day is the resignation of J. H. M. Bourassa, M. Mr. Bourassa resigns in a letter to Premier Laurier in which he draws attention to Laurier's statement that troops would not be sent until parliament had been

OTTAWA, Oct. 20.-Local liberals are earing mad at Mr. Bourassa for resigning his seat. A western liberal member in town today characterized Bourassa's action as idiotic and the utcome of a swelled head which he had had since his appointment as secretary of the international sion. In striking contrast to Bou rassa's action is that of Belcourt, liberal member for Ottawa, who sent a check for thirty dollars to get some comforts for the Ottawa contingent, accompanied by a patriotic letter com hendi g volunteers for fighting in the cause of progress and civilization.

WEDDED AT NORTON STATION. The new R. C. church at Norton station was the scine of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday, the 18th inst., when Miss Rosella Ryan of that place was united in marriage to John A. Kelly of Derry, N. H., formerly of Belleisle. Miss Alice Ryan supported her sister, the bride; C. M. Kelly, brother of the groom, acted as grooms-man. Rev. Fr. Byrne, P. P., of Norton, celebrated the mass and tied the nuptial knot. Much praise is due the kind ladies of Norton for the manner in which the church was prepared, and to the choir of Sussex who furnished music for the occasion. Misses M Innis and W. B. Ryan were ushers for the day, and long before the appointed hour the building was literally packed. After the ceremony the happy couple repaired to the home of the bride's parents, where they took dinner with some of their most immediate relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Kelly left for Boston by C. P. R. train amid pious showers of rice and congratulations and farewells. The bride, a most pleasing and popular lady, was the recipient of many and costly presents, and the best wishes of all will ever remain with her and her husband in their future home.

DROWNING ACCIDENT

A special despatch to the Globe from River du Loup of yesterday's date says: "Yesterday morning Howard R. White, manager of the People's Bank of Halifax; J. Plummet, teller of the same bank; Edwin and Walter Jarvis, sons of ex-Mayor Jarvis, and Stenning Harding, son of Rev. Geo. Harding, Episcopal minister of this place, went eut in White's yacht and crossed to Hare's island opposite. They left the yacht to row to the shore, two hundred feet distant. The skiff filled and sank twenty feet from the yacht, and despite the heroic efforts of his companons Walter Jarvis, aged 19, and Stening Harding, aged 20, were drowned. Edwin Jarvis remained at the scene, and with assistance sailors recovered the bodies, which were brought to town this morning." Stenning Harding is grandson of Dr. Harding, ex-port physician

THE LATE REV. S. J. HANFORD. In S. Peter's church, Upham, Kings Co., where the late Rev. S. J. Hanford officiated for 38 years, were dedicated on Friday morning, Oct. 13th, the new altar and reredos erected to his mem-ory by friends of the deceased. The holy communion was celebrated by the rector, assisted by the Rev. A. J. Cresswell, and the sermon was preached by the Rev. J. Roy Campbell of Dorchester. This beautiful memorial was made by Ross & McPherson of Sussex and is in its execution a work of art and a credit to the makers. Its cost, $60, was paid before the dedication

The altar and reredos are of quartered oak, with designs in walnut of I. H. S. and passion flowers on the altar panels, the words "I am the Bread of Life" on the super-altar, and on the reredos Alpha and Omega, with a gilt cross standing in the centre panel. On either side are crimson hangings extending the whole width of the east end of the chancel. The harvest thanksgiving was held the same evening, when the service was rendered chorally with the kind help of the Smithtown choir, and a most excellent and practical sermon preached by the rector of Springfield. This is the second great improve-ment to the material fabric of Upham church added this year, the first being the bell, which was put in the belfry at Eastertide, and a third improvement will be commenced next week, when the exterior of the church will be painted.

Amid a gathering of distinguished ducators and men of learning, Arthur Twining Hadley was the other day inaugurated the thirteenth president of
