DEATHS.

WARR—At Windsor, N. S., Aug. 14th, Geraldine Warr, 9 months, infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Warr. "He carries the lambs in his arms."

MOTT—At Central Cambridge, Queens Co., N. B., Miss Albina Mott, aged 49 years. Miss Mott was a member of the Lower Cambridge Church, and was a woman of beautiful Christian character.

NEWCOMBE—At Newcombville, Lunenburg Co., N. S., Aug. 9th, James Newcomb, aged 73 years, suddenly passed to his reward. He leaves three daughters and two sons, who are looking forward to a re-union in the Home Eternal.

THORNE—At Cambridge, Queens Co., Aug. 11th, 1905, JANE, widow of the late Jas. W. Thorne, of Johnston, Queens Co., in the 71st years of her age. Two sons, four daughters and two brothers survive her. For many years she had been a follower of Christ. During the last part of her life she was a member of Narrows, F. B. Church. For her "to live was Christ, and to die was gain." Funeral services were at Thornstown and were conducted by the writer, David Patterson.

ROURKE—At the residence of Mrs. D. C. McKinley, Lower North River, P. E. I., sister of the deceased, on the 27th July, of heart failure, Annabella McLeod, beloved wife of George Rourke, of Montague, P. E. I., aged 49 years. The deceased had for some years been a successful teacher in the public schools of the province. After her marriage she was led to consecrate her life to Christian service, and her connection with Montague Baptist Church was helpful both to herself and to the community in which she lived. Her life was one of gentleness and patient activity, and her death casts a deep shadow of sorrow over her late home and over the large circle of her friends. Much sympathy is felt for the husband and youthful daughter, who especially mourns her loss.

THOMPSON—Deacon Willard Thompson died at his home Upper Sackville, on the 4th day of August, after a brief illness of only a few days. Our brother was sixty-four years of age, and had been a member of Bethel Baptist Church for over forty years, having joined the church when quite a young man. He had also occupied the office of deacon for nearly all that period, first when the church included both Middle and Lower Sackville, and later since the church was divided, he remaining a deacon of the upper section. After all these years of faithful service Brother Thompson will be much missed from his accustomed place, especially at the communion service, the table of which he always prepared. He was a good citizen, an obliging neighbor, and a kind husband and father. His widowed wife survives him; also one son and four daughters with a large family connection. One of his daughters married Mr. A. C. Berrie who is now studying for the ministry at Colgate University. Brother Thompson died as he lived, trusting to the merits of a crucified Saviour and looking calmly forward to the Christian's promised land. His family are placing a beautiful memorial window in the new church now being erected at Middle Sackville.

RELEASE.

Out of myself, Lord!

From the narrowing prison,

The grave-clothes bound on hand and foot and knee,

Up to that life and light where thou art risen,

Call me, and get me free.

Out of myself, Lord!

From the restless seeking,

The babel of earth's care and fret and loss,

Into the hush where love alone is speaking—

The silence of the cross.

Out of myself, Lord!

From life's tangled story,

The doubts unsolved, the fears unanswered still,

Into the clear white morning of thy glory.

The peace which is thy will

Out of myself, Lord!

What shall yet befall me

I ask no more, enough that thou art
mine,

Turn by thy face, O Son of God, and call me

To lose my life in thine.

All the employees in the car building shop of the Toronto Railway Company, numbering more than one hundred and fifty, have been served with notices dispensing with their services.
There is much speculation as to what the company's action means.

Form of Flattery."

The best proof that

MINARD'S LINIMENT

has extraordinary merits, and is in good repute with the public, is that IT IS EXTEN-SIVELY IMITATED. (The imitations resemble the genuine article in appearance only. They lack the general excellence of the Genuine.

This notice is necessary, as injurious and dangerous imitations, liable to produce chronic inflammation of the skin, are often substituted for MINARD'S LINIMENT by Dealers, because they pay a larger profit.

They all Sell on the Merits and Advertising of MINARD'S.

One in particular claiming to be made by a
