

THE RULES OF THE "HOME."

FOR THE MATRON.

1. She shall have entire charge of the Home under the direction of the Visiting Committee. She shall keep it neat and clean, enforce the rules of the Home and endeavor in every way to carry out the orders of the ladies of the Committee.
2. The Matron shall be present at meals, see that they are properly served, that everything is placed on the table before the family is seated, that suitable nourishment is provided for the sick, and proper order preserved at table.
3. She shall be expected to be kind to the inmates of the "Home," not showing partiality in any case, and always maintaining the respect due to her station. If improper conduct is observed in any member of her family, or profane language used, it shall be her duty to report the same to the Visiting Committee.
4. She shall render a faithful account of all stores and property placed in her charge, note down in a book all events of importance and all donations, and report any loss or breakage that may occur.
5. The Matron shall present, a list of articles needed for the "Home" once a week to the Visiting Committee, and she shall not make any purchase for the "Home" except by written permission of the Visiting Committee.
6. The Matron shall be personally responsible for the administering of all medicines, ordered by the Physician, and for the carrying out of his orders concerning the sick.
7. No person shall be admitted into the "Home" nor shall any person be discharged therefrom, without an official order, as provided by Constitution.
8. The Matron shall examine the persons and boxes of all inmates, on first entering, and when necessary, cause all to be thoroughly cleansed.