d Bonaparte's arrival has been th of the week, though he is but J. W. ALLES — Low the principal event of the work, though he is but a "prince ling" when compared with the last prince who honored us with a visit. He did not arrive at a very good time socially speaking, as there is really mothing doing in the way of a large function which might have given him an opportunity of seeing some of the beauty and brillinacy which really does being to a Halitax ball. However, the French imperialist prince seems to be engrossed more by studying the institutions educational and otherwise to socially blank a period.
In the institution seeducational and otherwise to be cally does not regret having come at so socially blank a period.
In the institution seems to be charget having come does not regret and probably does not regret having come does not regret having come does not regret having come does not help the prince paid was much interested and with which he expressed much pleasure, the Frince paid the former at the Halita Clab.
On Wedneeday Sir John and Lady Hopkins gave a small uncheon party for Prince Roland, after which, in spite of the unpleasant weather, arrangements had been made to take him over H. M. S. Blake," which high he had expressed a great its exert to sec. Prince I

DARTMOUTH. JUNE 6 —One of the events of the season, and one that has teen eagerly looked forward to by the dancing portion of society here, was the ball given by the Fortnightly Club at their rooms on Monday night. I never saw the rooms look better, for the managing committee, Mr. and Mrs. D ckson, Mrs. A. E. Ellis, Mrs. C. II. Harvey, Miss Dolly Dewar and Mr. James Dus an did their work with tase and skill, and really worked wonders in draping and arranging curtains, flags, s.c., and in adorning every available nook and corner with flowers and ferns, arranging curtains, mage, with flowers and r available nook and corner with flowers and r cut and potted. The rather dingy stage at the cut and potted. hall was tra fingers into a handsome modern drawing room, which afforded a capital place for "sitting out;" and a dressing room for the ladies was obtained by screening off one end of this with heavy portieres. The music was farnished by the band of the Harper's from town, and the floor was in excellent dancing

JUNE 1.--Our town is looking, if possible, brighter ad prettier than usual this season, and the many rangers who meet together for the anniversary must fail to be favorably impressed with the strangers who meet together nor the aniversal cannot fail to be favorably impressed with the beauty of everything. On Sunday moraing the 28th the Rev. Arther Chute, of Halifar, preached the Baccalaureate sr-mon in the baptist church, taking for his text Gen. xit, 4. Among the arrivals to attend the anniversary exercises, I noticed Mrs. Brough of Autigonish, who is stopping with friends. Rev. W. Dakin.] The ladies of the methodist church held a fancy sale and tea is the Reform club hall on Thurday evening June 1st. The tea was managed on a much improved pian. A number of small tables to accom-modate three or four persons being used instead of the time honored board running the whole length of the hall. By this means those who wanted tea, were served with "neatness and dispatch." Miss Louise Blanchard has returned from Newton. The entratainment given by the pupils of St. Bernard's convent in the college hall, Tuesday evening was quite a success. The most enjoyable features were the calisthenics and the exercises with features were the calastactions and the execution with hoops by the younger pupils. In the calastactics little Misson McCartby, McLean, M. Harringten, and McGillivray, were decidedly the best. The piano duett by Miss Anna McKinnon and Miss Maic McGillivray was very good as was also the song by Miss Brush. SAMANTHA.
