ROYAL YEAST CAKES

Some women hold to the idea that bread-making is a long and difficult operation, but this is a mistake, for with Royal Yeast Cakes, light, sweet bread can be made in a few hours with but little trouble.

For more information, write to E.W. Gillett Co. Ltd., Montreal.

THE THISTLES DEFEATED IN FOUR INNING GAME

Had it not been for the heavy fog, the presence of which appreciably marred good ball last night, the fans would have seen a clever game. So dense was this element of nature that it was almost impossible to see a fly ball. This was especially noticeable in the outfield. However, notwithstanding this drawback the errors were few and for the most part excusable. The

THE KENT COUNTY O'LEARYS ARE DOING THEIR SHARE IN THE WORK OF THE NATION

Three Members of This Family Hold Commissions Overseas—One has been Awarded the Distinguished Service Order and Another the Military Cross—Those At Home Are Also Active.

HON. COL. R. O'LEARY HEADS RECRUITING ASSOCIATION OF N. B.

K—The Kent O'Learys—3—79—Wa. Among the New Brunswick families who have earned more than the ordinary share of honor at the front, are members of the O'Leary family of Kent county. This group enjoy the honor of having three representatives in France, all holding commissions in Canadian corps, of whom one has been awarded the Distinguished Service Order and another the Military Cross, for bravery in action. These three are Captain Fred A. O'Leary, recently of Campbellton, Lieutenant E. O'Leary of Richibucto, and Captain Harry O'Leary of Richibucto.

CAPT. FRED A. O'LEARY, D. S. O.
Campbellton, N. B.

O'Leary of Richibucto, and a brother of Wm. J. O'Leary of Montreal, and of Bishop Louis O'Leary of Chatham, and of Bishop Henry O'Leary of Charlotte-town. He is a half-brother of Richard O'Leary of Richibucto, and of Arthur E. O'Leary, also of Richibucto, chief game warden for New Brunswick. Fred O'Leary enlisted as a private with the 26th Battalion, and while still in Canada took the qualifying course and won his commission as lieutenant. He transferred to the 104th Battalion under Lieut-Col. Fowler, and after reaching England was drafted to his original battalion, the 26th, in France, in which corps he recently won the Distinguished Service Order and his captaincy.

Lieutenant E. O'Leary, son of A. E. O'Leary of Richibucto, also of Richibucto, N. B., awarded Military Cross in France.

ment. On September 25th last Lieut. O'Leary was promoted to captaincy on the Somme front. He was slightly wounded at Vimy Ridge on Easter Monday, April 9th, but remained on duty and for his valour on this occasion he has recently been awarded the Military Cross. While at McGill, Capt. Harry O'Leary was prominent in athletic circles, and at the time of leaving was president of the McGill College Union. He was also a member of the McGill Council of 1914, and it is worthy of the fact that the entire eleven members of that body are now serving at the front.

"Fifty cents is a lot of money." You can never tell where that O'Conor bunch will finish.

The Standard refuses to advertise circus performances for nothing, that is the reason the Thistle-Shamrock game did not appear in this paper yesterday morning.

A Fan—"Talk about nerve, just watch the lead that Mooney takes off that second bag."

"Mugsy" in reply—"He's got nerve all right do you see him wearing a Shamrock cap?"

The fog was so thick last night that Keadon could not see his own leg of Napoleon.

McKenzie may be able to come back, but it will take the whole season for him to get there.

The same act will be staged tonight, Thistles and Maples.
