

VENIOT-FOSTER GOVERNMENT HAS RUN PROVINCE IN RUT

Messrs. Campbell and Potts Make Brief But Pointed Speeches at Opposition Primaries Last Evening—Large Gathering of Electors Chose Delegates to Conservative Convention—Provision Made for Representation of the Ladies.

A good representation of the Conservative voters from all the wards in the city except Stanley assembled in the Seamen's Institute last evening to select delegates to the Provincial Convention which will be held in St. John on November 6, and a separate meeting of the electors of Stanley was held for the same purpose. The utmost harmony and considerable enthusiasm marked the proceedings, and the result of the elections shows that the city will have a first-class delegation in attendance at the convention. Mr. Tilley was unable to attend the primaries, but the other two city members, Mr. Campbell and Mr. Potts, were present, and the few remarks they addressed to the gathering met with a hearty reception.

In opening the proceedings J. Roy Campbell, M. P., said he was glad to see such a good representation for all the wards except Stanley, whose electors were meeting elsewhere to choose their delegates. He regretted to report that Mr. Tilley, who had hoped to attend the meeting, had been called away on important business, and he had been asked by Mr. Tilley to convey his regrets at his unavoidable absence. He also expressed regret that more ladies were not in attendance, as the Association had taken some interest in getting the ladies' names on the voters' list, and there was no doubt the ladies' vote would be an important factor in the next elections. He supposed they felt somewhat bashful about coming forward for the first time, but believed they would in the near future take an active part in all political affairs.

F. L. Potts, M. P., said he was glad to see so many present, and added that the attendance showed an interest in the political affairs of the province that was gratifying. Messrs. Campbell and Potts then held a brief consultation with the chairman of the different wards, and it was agreed that each ward should only proceed to the election of two delegates and substitutes. Each ward is entitled to select a delegate besides the chairman, who is a delegate by virtue of his office. But it was decided to reserve an opportunity for the ladies to select a representative. The chairman of each ward will endeavor to get the lady voters of his ward to hold a meeting and choose a delegate. In event of inability to get the ladies to choose a delegate, the ward chairman may name one, and if none are willing to act, substitute No. 1 will represent the ward on the floor of a lady voter. Only two ladies attended the primaries, and both were from Dukes ward. A number of ladies came to the door, but were evidently shy about assuming their new rights and responsibilities.

As a result of the primaries the following will represent the city at the Provincial Convention on November 6: Brooks ward—Chairman, John Amos. Delegates, George Cobham, Chas. Hughes. Substitutes, Chas. Amos, Frank Cobham. Dukes ward—Chairman, C. M. Lingley. Delegates, C. B. Ward, Isaac Mercer. Substitutes, Allan Wetmore, H. B. Colman. Dufferin ward—Chairman, Geo. Maxwell. Delegates, W. E. Deming, G. A. Stubbs. Substitutes, Fred. Dako, T. A. Graham. Lansdowne ward—Chairman, John Thornton. Delegates, G. Earle Logan, Wm. L. Brown. Substitutes, George Appt, Chas. A. Cunningham. Guys ward—Chairman, W. D. Thompson. Delegates, James Brittain, Chas. Hamm. Substitutes, Willis Waring, Albert Dykeman. Kings ward—Chairman, Fred. J. McInerney. Delegates, M. E. Agar, Thos. Dean. Substitutes, T. E. Simpson, J.

Mr. Potts said he was gratified at the interest shown by the Opposition electors of the city, and congratulated the gathering on their choice of delegates to the convention. He believed the convention would be important for the fortunes of the party, and all they needed was to put a little energy into the fight for good government. "The present government has run its course," said Mr. Potts. "It is in a bad way, and down, and all they have to do is to get it up again. This government has got the province into such a rut that progress is at a standstill. We want progressive men and fighters in the next government, or the province will lose the greatest opportunity it ever had. We want a leader who will tell us his policy, and who means what he says. We don't want a tame leader; I have no use for a milk and water politician. We don't want anybody who goes around telling one thing in the lodge room, and something else outside. We have had too many Sunday schools—with all respect to Sunday schools—who know what I mean, the men that went along so quietly like angels and placed us in the position we are in now. We want fighters. You must come to the convention prepared to choose a leader, because those who are not entitled to it will have to fight for a month to get it, so far as I am concerned. Mr. Potts said the next government must abolish the practice of imposing all kinds of little taxes upon the people and develop a policy of raising revenues by taxing the natural resources of the province. He dealt at some length with the question of dual language. He was willing when in Rome to do as the Romans do, but in this province there should only be one school and one language. In the United States they only had one language, because when they got their independence they decided to stick to one language. But in this province we may soon have two text books in our schools: little things were working in all the time, and there were parts of the province where they did speak English. "Let us stand under the present government for four or five years more, and you will be taking a shovel and going to some other country to seek a living," said Mr. Potts. "It is not that I don't love a Frenchman or a French woman. If I was in France, I would expect to use the French language and live as French people do. But this is a British province, and we only want one school and one language."

OBITUARY

Captain Robert D. Gilechrist. One of the oldest captains in the coastal service went out on his last voyage last night, when Captain Robert D. Gilechrist answered the call of the Great Pilot, in the 88th year of his age.

The deceased, who was of direct Loyalist descent, was born in Cambridge, Queens County, February 17, 1834, and is the last of his generation. He leaves to mourn one son, Charles E. Gilechrist, of Boston, and one daughter, Mrs. P. E. Flewelling, of this city, besides five grandchildren.

Throughout his life he was a consistent member of the Liberal party and a staunch supporter of the Main street Baptist church.

The funeral will be announced at a later date. Burial will be made at Bely's Cove, Queens County.

SERIOUS CRIMINAL CASE ON TRIAL AT HAMPTON

Guilford Humphrey Alleged to Have Had Criminal Intercourse with Girl Under Fourteen Years.

Special to The Standard. Hampton, N. B., Oct. 21.—An adjourned session of the Kings County Court opened here today. His Honor Judge W. B. Jones presiding. One criminal case is on the docket, the King against Guilford Humphrey, of Renforth, who is charged with having criminal intercourse with a girl under the age of fourteen years by the name of May Quigley. There are three counts in the indictment preferred by the Crown, the lesser of the three charging indecent assault, by which the Judge and some of the jury are of the opinion that he will show that an attempt to black mail is back of the charge. The case for the Crown is being conducted by Geo. A. Clark, Clerk of the Court. Ralph St. John Froese and K. A. Wilson for the defense. Owing to the very late arrival of the Maritime Express, by which the Judge and some of the court officials were coming, court was not opened until about 11.30 Standard time, or an hour and a half later. At some of the jurymen had come in by early train, which are still running by so-called daylight time, and others had driven from a considerable distance in order to be ready to answer to their names at 10 o'clock, there were noticeable signs of impatience. With one exception the grand jury who had been sworn were present.

His Honor committed the grand jurors regarding to hour of adjournment for dinner, and by a show of hands a large majority favored an early adjournment in order to satisfy their appetites. The jurymen retired and elected Harry Morton, of Sussex, as their foreman, after which they are daily sworn. Court then adjourned for dinner.

Afternoon Session. His Honor in charging the grand jury, took occasion to refer to the changed methods of selecting jurors under the new jury act. Under this act the provincial government has the selection of jurors, but the choice is made by lot, and those upon whom the lot falls cannot be excused, but must be present or pay the fine, which the Judge has no authority to remit. He spoke of the very satisfactory attendance of jurymen during his eight years on the bench. After hearing the case for some time the grand jury returned and reported a true bill on the last count only, and no bill on the other counts, but as they had had nothing to do with the selection of jurors, Mr. Adair asked that they be sent back to hear the others, which he considered important, as this was done. After hearing the other witnesses, however, they reported the same finding as before, and this was unanimous.

They were then thanked by the Judge and excused from further attendance. No time was wasted in the selection of the prosecution. There were only two or three challenges, and the following were duly sworn: Melville Jones, Thomas Robertson, J. V. Smith, J. B. Fowler, J. P. Allen, J. E. Bates, G. W. Crawford, Archie Creslock, Fred Mahoney, G. W. McCreedy. Mrs. Quigley was the first witness called, but was stood aside to the evidence of Dr. G. O. Baxter, of St. John, so that his further attendance would not be necessary. Mrs. Quigley was then called, and her evidence was not completed when court adjourned. The case will likely be completed tomorrow.

Clams Hadn't A Chance There

Y. M. C. I. Bowlers Make the Possible at Clam Supper Last Night—Trophy Received.

The bowlers at the Y. M. C. I. had a delightful time last evening at a clam supper which was served them in the very best of style. After all had enjoyed the supper W. J. Magee presided over a much appreciated programme, and before the first number was called he exhibited to those present a handsome silver trophy in the shape of a ball surrounding three bottles.

This trophy the chairman stated was the prize given by the Brunswick Balke Collinder Co. for the bowler having the highest average during the tournament held a few months ago and the winner was James Smith of the Amherst team. The beautiful prize was only received yesterday and will be immediately sent to Mr. Smith.

The programme included a duet by Messrs. John and Andrew Moore, solo, Mr. Roselyn, recitations by Steve Hurley and E. J. Hennebury, piano selection, Dr. W. P. Broderick, and addresses by Rev. Wm. M. Duke, W. J. Magee, Thomas Cosgrove, H. P. McQuaffery, J. Melly and H. J. Sheehan.

It is the intention to conduct similar suppers during the season and the boys say they can't be conducted too often.

YORK CO. JUDGE REFUSES PRISONER'S PLEA OF GUILTY

Says Brave Man is Never a Thief and Discharges Returned Soldier.

Fredericton, Oct. 21.—Chester Cane Co. officials, this morning, estimated the damage by fire at the bottle room in factory, last night, at about $1,200.

"A brave man is never a thief," declared Judge Wilson, in the York County Court this morning, when he ordered the discharge from custody of Frank Baxter, a returned soldier, who had changed his plea from not guilty to guilty to the charge of stealing an automobile. Counsel had pleaded for suspended sentence upon the ground that there was no intent to steal shown, and the taking of the automobile, followed by a collision, in which the car was wrecked, was accepted by the court as merely a thoughtless escapade, which might have brought to the prisoner a severe penalty.

Judge Wilson declined to accept the prisoner's plea of guilty, and there was no evidence to support a conviction and ordered his discharge. During the proceedings His Honor received a letter in which Major Alex. McMillan, D. S. O., said Baxter had been a member of his company and was "a reliable man in the line, fearless in action, and was to be depended upon in every way," having had charge of a Lewis gun section and being an "original" of the 26th Battalion.

KING OF SPAIN WARMLY GREETED BY THE FRENCH

Paris, Oct. 21.—The Paris morning papers are nearly unanimous in welcoming King Alfonso of Spain in France. They extol the King's activities on behalf of French prisoners during the war, and the articles in practically all the papers appear under the headlines of "A Friend of France."

The Belair, however, criticizes the Spanish policy, saying that Spain was a nest of German espionage throughout the war.

Enumerating Spain's war-time Premier, the paper writes: "Neither Dato, Prieto, Maura or even Count Romanones, was capable of applying to the Germans the law of strict neutrality, or of obtaining obedience from Germanophile public servants."

"The King of Spain has much to make us forget, but Spanish waters have been the graveyard of so many French sailors that the King will understand we must demand from his country serious guarantees for the future."

This Belair, which was recently reorganized, is now working in behalf of former Premier Briand.

"If it's more than five dollars, old man, I can't do a thing for you; I'm hard up myself."

In view of the large number of mental defectives in these provinces, especially among the children, the time has fully arrived when this serious and dangerous state of affairs must be corrected in the interests of our future manhood and womanhood.

We urge this convention to take the matter before the responsible authorities so that proper buildings may be had, and the necessary institutional treatment needed given such unfortunate.

2. In view of the increasing neglect on the part of parents towards the welfare of their children, often leading to delinquency and crime, we urge the necessity of a court of domestic relations, presided over by trained and competent officials, to deal with such offenders thus obviating the necessity of bringing such offenders before the ordinary courts of law, which, by reason of their associations, tend to degrade rather than reform.

3. In as much as the moving picture has come to stay, we recommend that every effort be made by the religious leaders of our denomination to use its influence to see that pictures of a questionable nature are not allowed to be shown, and will further the endeavor to have pictures of an educational and helpful nature exhibited.

4. Your committee would recommend the great need of providing in the provinces additional accommodations for the care of dependant Protestants, where they may be brought up in the principles of our faith, and would commend the practical cooperation of Baptists of these Maritime Provinces to such movements and efforts.

HAVE YOU THOUGHT what our failure to lend means? It means that our farmers lose their markets and the prices of grains, fruits, and other agricultural products drop. It means our fishermen will be cut off from their foreign markets and deprived of the opportunity to sell their catch. It means that our lumbermen would cease to operate, because their export trade was killed. It means our factories would have to slow down for want of foreign orders. It means our coal mines would curtail output and reduce their pay rolls. It means that skilled and unskilled labor would find it more difficult to get employment. It means that a slackening of effort injurious to the country, every shopkeeper, every trader, every worker.

THIS IS NO EXAGGERATION. It is exactly what would happen and it is the reason why the welfare of every New Brunswick family, every New Brunswick citizen is bound up in the success of this year's loan. Self interest calls for aid to the utmost limit of our ability in keeping the machinery of prosperity humming. The factory chimneys must be kept smoking. The ocean and lake ports must continue to bustle with activity that the products of Canadian farms and factories may go to foreign lands.

SELF INTEREST should inspire the enthusiasm and hard work which means success.

CONFIDENTLY we look for the support of the New Brunswick people but thorough organization is the essential of success and thorough organization is possible only through every good citizen taking his full share of the work.

PUBLIC SPIRITED men in every county of the province are now at work perfecting their county organization. Place yourself at their service, help them in their efforts and make New Brunswick's last war effort the greatest of New Brunswick's war successes.

MARITIME BAPTISTS STRONG MEASURE WITH ALL SO

Will Line up Their Forces for Prohibition Lines in Order to Follow in Wake of Ontario

Special to The Standard. Woodstock, Oct. 21.—The afternoon session showed still further thinning of the ranks of delegates. The matter of teaching scripture in public schools was again considered. Dr. E. D. King spoke of the value of the Bible in education and moved that the whole matter be referred to the New Brunswick Association for consideration and action. He said that this body, representing three provinces, had no jurisdiction in the matter.

Rev. Z. L. Fash reported for the committee on the matter of entering the convention in the University buildings at Wolfville. The committee reported the willingness of the board of governors to make suitable arrangements provided the convention met while the schools are not in session.

Rev. W. R. Robinson reported for the Social Service Committee. This report showed the greatest advance regarding social matters ever marked by the convention. The report follows: Your committee on social service beg leave to submit the following report:
