WEDDINGS

Dollar-Ganons. Hampton Village, Nov. 19. A very pretty wedding took place yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Ganon, when their daughter, Mabel Grace, was united in marriage to Rev. William Dollar, of Hampstead. Rev. O. N. Chipman was the officiating clergyman.

The bride, gowned in white silk with silk lace and rhinestone trimmings, was given away by her father. She was attended by Miss Muriel Bovard, who wore pale blue silk with rhinestone trimmings. The groomsmen were Fred Williams and...

After the ceremony a dainty supper was served, the guests being the relatives and near friends of the bride. The groom's present to the bride was a handsome set of watches and a gold brooch, and to the groomsmen a gold watch pin. The bride received a large number of gifts, her parents presenting her with a piano and the groom's parents with silver.

The happy couple will leave on Thursday for their future home in Hampstead. The bride's going away suit was of tan whipcord and her hat of white plush.
