BEAUTIFUL PAGEANT AT EVANG. CHURCH

Pageant "White Gifts for the King" Pleased Large Audience.

The Christmas entertainment given by the Emmanuel Evangelical S.S. last evening was one which delighted the immense audience present. The first part of the program consisted of recitations, solos, choruses and exercises by the primary and junior scholars. The second was a pageant entitled "White Gifts for the King," rendered by intermediate and senior members of the school. This pageant was in harmony with the school's action in making this a "giving" Christmas. In it "Pilgrim" seeks to make a gift to the King. Asking advice of the "Wise Men," "Pleasure," "Wealth," "Pride," "Fame," "Worldliness" and "Love." Accepting the advice of "Conscience" and "Wisdom," "Pilgrim" chooses the cross of "Love," and brings her all as a gift to the King.

Following the pageant a representative of each class in the school came to the platform, bringing the envelope containing the class "White Gifts" of Self Service and Substance. The gifts of Substance, amounting to $288.00, go toward helping poor and orphan children in Japan or India, or for benevolent work at home, as specified by the classes. The committee having charge of the program is to be congratulated on the splendid way in which it was carried out.

A hearty invitation was given by the superintendent Mr. A.K. Crossman to those who do not belong to some S.S. to join this school, and help in the great work.

Vote Cochrane for the Mayoralty.

Mr. and Mrs. W.D. Hendry of Toronto spent the holidays at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sauer, Albert Street.

at the age of 72 years, 9 months and 6 days death following an illness extending over a period of four years and while her death was not unexpected it will come as a great shock to her many friends. The deceased has lived practically her whole life here. To mourn her loss there are left the sorrowing husband, two sons, Charles and Robert of Waterloo, and three daughters, Mary (Mrs. Pettigrew) of Kitchener and Elenora (Mrs. Alex. Ruebly) of Kitchener and to them much sympathy is extended in their hour of sorrow. Two brothers, Frank and Louis, of Danville Ill. and one sister, Mrs. Jos. Schwartz of Kitchener also survive.

The funeral will leave the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. Alex. Ruebly on Monday morning at 9 o'clock for St. Louis R.C. Church for services and thence to the R.C. Cemetery for interment.

Young Trushinski was the best man on the lot. He is nearly as speedy as his brother, and carries a wicked shot which worried Moore, the T.C.C. gofer.

It was given out last night on the best of authority that Applebath, Conacher, Burch and Moore of T.C.C. intend to play senior hockey this year. They have not decided whom they will play for but should have no trouble in catching places on the senior teams as they all are fast skaters, good puckers and excellent checks. There going will practically break up the Red Ringed Team.

There stands a giant, high on rocky hill, anchored firmly roots by crevice held For years it braved the storm, but still — it stands while brother pails were felled. Though early settlers toiled with might and cleared the soil with axe and fire Their grand old elm was saved from blight, defying these it grew still higher.

With sighing pines of newer birth and babbling birch surrounded It towered still with stately girth, its health seemed quite unbounded. Thro' misty morn' or dusky eve, to the trapper on the slide Or raftsmen coming from his leave, this watchman was their guide.

The great old tree, high o'er the rest, born ten score years or more Has braved the storm and stood the test — but now it's worn and sore Alas! its arms are withered now, it's body's split in twain — Life hangs but on one feeble bough, the rest are there in vain.
