Cardinal Satelli Prefect of Propaganda.
It is learned from an official source that Cardinal Francis Satelli, first Papal Delegate to the United States, 1893-87, has been appointed Prefect of the Propaganda by Pope Leo XIII. This news came direct from Rome, where Mr. Satelli has resided since leaving Washington three years ago. It has been tacitly understood among his acquaintances for some time that he would reach the highest station by reason of his marked executive ability. During the greater part of Pope Leo's reign since 1878, the office of Prefect of the Propaganda had been filled by the celebrated Cardinal Michael Ledochowski, an exile from Germany, who had spent two years in a Prussian prison previously, owing to the conflict with Falk laws. After his liberation the Pope called him to Rome and raised him to the Cardinalate as a special token of regard.
The Congregation of the Propaganda has the general control of the Catholic faith in missionary countries where no State religion exists. Questions of ecclesiastical discipline, episcopal appointments, etc., come under its management. No appeal from the decisions of this congregation is possible to any other tribunal, though parties who consider themselves aggrieved may petition for a rehearing by the same congregation. The Propaganda has the power to send its own priests into any diocese in the countries which it cares for, and such priests are not bound to follow any but the instructions of the congregation. It will be seen that the selection of Cardinal Satelli has placed him in a most powerful position.

CANADIAN NEWS.

Bishop Molloy has been spending a holiday in Ontario. Mitchell Catholics held a forty hours devotion last week. Fathers McCabe and Downey conducted the services.

We announce with regret the death of Mrs. John Barry, of North Lanoster. The deceased had been ill for over six months, and death came on in a most sudden manner. She leaves a husband and three little daughters. The funeral took place at St. Margaret's church, Glen Nova, and was largely attended.

Mrs. A. Gordon, president of the Ottawa W. C. T. U., has returned after an absence of three months and a half in Europe. She arrived in Montreal yesterday on the T. N. Mrs. Gordon began her tour with a visit to the publisher of the Standard in Rome on Assumption Day, and was present with the 20,000 pilgrims who thronged St. Peter's and received the Pope's blessing at that time.
St. Dunstan's cathedral, Charlotteville, P. E. I., was packed to the doors to witness the marriage of William L. Scott, the son of the Secretary of State, to Alice M., daughter of Chief Justice Sullivan. The ceremony took place at 10 o'clock on August 7, assisted by Rev. Dr. Morrison and Rev. Dr. Monaghan. The church was beautifully decorated with palms. The bride was given away by her father, the Rev. Dr. Morrison. The bridegroom and his attendants were: the groom, Rev. Dr. Morrison and Rev. Dr. Monaghan. The church was beautifully decorated with palms. The bride was given away by her father, the Rev. Dr. Morrison. The bridegroom and his attendants were: the groom, Rev. The novena which began at the Church of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, Newark, N. J., on July 8, and ended on July 15, was attended by many people who were all participants in some way. They came from all parts of the State and a number of churches have been reported. The most remarkable case is that of Rosa Pollock, who lives at 37 Mono street. The child is 7 years old and was born blind. Her parents made the novena for the child of Our Lady of Mount Carmel and she became sighted. Her parents noticed that she began to talk the day the novena ended. They say at first her speech was indistinct, and that it becomes clearer every day.

Plans are being prepared by Architect A. F. Schmidt, of New York, for a new hall for the parish of St. Michael's Catholic Church, Lombard and White streets. The building will be erected at the southeast corner of Baltimore and Wolfe streets at a cost of $25,000. It will be a one-story and basement structure of brick and stone, with a length of 115 feet. It will be built of granite and brick. The basement will contain a library, reading and billiard rooms and bowling-alley. The upper part will contain a hall for entertainment purposes, and will have a seating capacity for 1,800 persons.

A pretty ceremony was celebrated in St. Mary's cathedral, Kingston, when Rev. Fr. Neville joined in wedlock John T. Dain, most excellent Mayor of the City of Kingston, and Miss Hattie Torcotte, youngest daughter of Lebar Torcotte, Plum street. The bride, who was attired in a costume of blue and white, was escorted by Mr. Edith McEldon, who wore a pretty white gown. W. Dain, Bath, brother of the groom, performed the offices relating with best man. After the ceremony the bridal party retreated to the city of Kingston where a wedding breakfast was served. Following this Mr. and Mrs. Dain left for their future home at Marysville.

A garden party in aid of St. Mary's rectory, London, will be held on the grounds surrounding the rectory, on Wednesday, the 15th of August. Seven young ladies—the Misses Mary Connor, Kate Fitzhery, Nellie Huran, Lottie Loughlin, Kate Moore, Stacey Moran and Mary Murray—are acting as committee. The party is in a spirit of friendly rivalry, are already busy at work, and their efforts are expected to result in a most successful evening. The following gentlemen—P. A. Huot, F. E. Charron, J. Seguin, A. St. Jean, Louis Lalonde, Alex Lafond, and others, are expected to be present.

St. Mary's of the Mountain Chapel, erected by Mrs. Robert G. Bessy, of Chapin, at Buena Vista Springs, in memory of her late husband, was dedicated with appropriate ceremonies. Bishop John W. Shanahan, of St. Paul, officiated. The Rev. Father Reg. Eugene Haltermeyer, of Wyanboro, celebrated Mass. Rev. W. T. Russell, secretary to Cardinal Gibbons, delivered the sermon. The Rev. Father G. W. Smith, minister, assisted. The chapel was filled with persons who are spending the summer at the resorts about Pen-Mar. The building is of stone, and has a seating capacity for 200 people. It cost $5,000 in dependent of a full set of costly vestments, also the gift of Mrs. Rennet. The chapel has been permanently attached to St. Anne's Rectory, which was made by the Rev. Father, who conducted a mission at Buena Vista for the past two years, will be the pastor.

The annual Montreal Irish Catholic men's pilgrim to the shrine of Our Lady of Lourdes was one of the largest attended and most successful of the series. The pilgrimage left the city on Saturday evening on the steamer 'Toussaint' for the continent. St. Anne's Cathedral, 109 streets, in the city of St. Anne, was the starting point. The pilgrim train, both of which discussed choice musical selections. The pilgrimage was conducted by Rev. Father Strubbe at their head. The weather was all that could be desired, and nothing occurred to mar the harmony of the pilgrimage. St. Anne was reached on Sunday morning, and the pilgrims marched to the church and partook of communion. After breakfast they attended church again and heard a sermon. Two hours were spent at the shrine of Our Lady, where the visitors remained for a couple of hours, marching up Mountain Hill to St. Patrick's school for dinner. The Three Rivers residents were present in the morning all being delighted with the trip.

At a meeting of the churchwardens, old and new, held at the Presbytery, Lachine, after the funeral service of the late Canon Phibe, His Grace Archbishop Brocheux announced that Rev. J. T. Savaria, chaplain of St. Jean Benoit Laborer at Longue Pointe, had been chosen to replace the late lamented parish priest. The new incumbent is an able and brilliant party, and his disposition and character are particularly fitted to take the work of his predecessor in the parish of Lachine. Born 43 years ago at St. Julie, Father Savaria received his canonical education at the seminary of St. Hyacinthe, graduating with honors. He then entered the Grand Seminary at Montreal where he followed the study of the law and of the sciences. He was ordained priest May 17th, 1883, and was appointed assistant priest of Les Calvres, in Soulangue county. He remained there about two years, and since that date has been chaplain of the restaurant at Longue Pointe. During the years he has occupied that position he has devoted himself to study. Besides his charge of chapel he is also the superior of the Carmelite nuns in this country, and was appointed some years ago an honorary canon of the Montreal Cathedral.

During last week all the school sisters do not neglect in carrying the contents of Walkerston, Widmore, Montreal and other parts, as also some visiting sisters from Buffalo, New Gormany, Waterloo, Berlin, St. Agatha and St. Clements, held a religious convention at the school of St. Ignace, the spiritual direction of Rev. Father Bobu of Detroit. There were over forty sisters present, and all speak highly of the edifying direction of Rev. Father Bobu. Subsequent to the religious convention, the school sisters held a practical meeting by themselves the work of which lasted for several days. Ordinarily these meetings are held under the direction of Rev. Father Bobu. The sisters of St. Ignace were quite as fully enjoyed by those of more experience. All the Sisters went away delighted and full of zeal for the advancement of Christian education.

The Ursuline Sisters will celebrate the golden jubilee of the establishment of the order in Cleveland on August 8. The pretty new chapel just completed by the Rev. W. B. Farrell at Reepoot is opened for divine service on Sunday, July 29th. A new convent at Elkon, S. D., is expected to be ready for opening this fall. The building will be a handsome one of Jasper, red brick and limestone. Henry Austin Adams has consented to give the Ursuline Sisters a plot of land in the Tronton Catholic Club ground near November and December. The Sisters of the Sacred Heart in Pittsburg have purchased a site in the East End for a school and convent. The property is used as a home for wayward girls. The property is opposite Lincoln Park, and cost $25,000. Lamperti, the artist, is at work on the painting of the crucifixion over the main door of St. Ignace. The painting is being placed in the pointed Gothic panel, immediately over the altar. A $35,000 Catholic church was dedicated at Adrian, Mich. Right Rev. Bishop D. C. Wilton, of the diocese of Wisconsin, was the dedicatory, and delivered the dedicatory sermon.

St. James's Catholic Orphan Home is now open for the reception of orphan children at 1272 Broadway street and Third Street, New York. It is under the direction of the Sisters of St. Benedict. The new Catholic church at Akron, Ia., is almost completed, and the first divine service was held therein on Sunday, July 29th. The same service will be held at the new church which will be held at the first of September. The Very Rev. Thomas Bouquillon, D.D., Professor of Moral Theology in the Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C., who went to Detroit to attend the Summer School, was in Detroit for several days to his room in Hotel Cadillac for several days. Very Rev. Joseph M. Benning, vicar-general of Grand Rapids, Mich., will leave for his diocese on Monday, August 7th. Before going to Grand Rapids, Father Benning was stationed in the Cincinnati diocese. Very Rev. J. Slatery, of Baltimore, acting vicar-general of the Baltimore Society, has bought 210 acres of land at Five miles from Montgomery, Ala., in which they will erect a college for colored Catholics. This will be the first school of the kind in that section. This great feast of the Pontifical of Francaux Churches commenced at Vespers on Wednesday, August 1, and ended on Thursday, August 2. A Plenary Indulgence is granted for each visit made to these churches, saying the usual prayers for the intentions of our Holy Father.

The five sanctary windows recently donated to the St. James' Church, 20th Street and Wabash Avenue, Chicago, by Miss Catharine S. McNeill, 3001 Wabash Avenue, were blessed by Rev. Father Sullivan on the glass for the five windows cost $100.00. The central subject is the Transfiguration. The subjects of the other windows are the Ascension and the Nativity, after Correggio's 'Holy Night.' The sanctuary lamp, donated by Mrs. John McNeill, cost $100.00, all of its metal work being quadruple plated in gold.

The Rev. John A. Sullivan, pastor of St. Ignace Church, New York, has assumed the duties of the establishment of a school for the Sisters who teach in the parochial school. At present, and since the school was closed, the school building has been used for the school building. The school is now being prepared for the school year by the Sisters who teach in the parochial school. In the death of Sister Mary Dominic, who was buried at Sparkill, N.Y., the Sisterhood of the Third Order of St. Dominick, Catholic charities, and indeed, suffering childhood itself has met with an almost irreparable loss. Mother Dominic, the daughter of Mother General of the Order in this State, was born in Kilkenny, Ireland, forty-six years ago, immigrated to this country with her parents, and was at the time of her death the youngest of her sisters. Only four years later she was made Mother Superior of the Order, although one of the youngest members.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION TO FATHER DE VINIS.
Father Devin's parishioners took advantage of his visit to friends at the Thousand Islands to prepare a genuine surprise for him on his return. He was tendered the following address at the Hotel Grand Central, where he was lodged on Sunday. The presentation was made in the presence of the Rev. F. J. W. England, and the Rev. A. Nollin, and a large concourse of people.

REVEREND DEAR FATHER,—It seems but yesterday that we assembled to congratulate you on the completion of your twentieth year as our pastor. In that brief acknowledgment of our indebtedness to you for your untiring devotion to all that interests us, and in some measure to express to you our appreciation of your attachment to us, our Father and friend; yet we find to-day that the second half-score of years is far advanced, and that your life has been a long and noble one. In our opinion, you have been a true and sincere pastor, a true and sincere friend, a true and sincere father. We are proud to have you as our spiritual guide. The self-sacrificing zeal, the prudence as to the financial burdens to be imposed, the unwearied devotion to you on the part of our parishioners that characterized the first decade of your ministry in this parish have made and are to-day its leading features.
