

An Act to amend the Copyright Act.

HER Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows :—

1. If a book as to which there is subsisting copyright under The Copyright Act has been first lawfully published in any part of Her Majesty's dominions other than Canada, and if it is proved to the satisfaction of the Minister of Agriculture that the owner of the copyright so subsisting and of the copyright acquired by such publication has lawfully granted a license to reproduce in Canada, from movable or other types, or from stereotype plates, or from electro-plates, or from lithograph stones, or by any process for facsimile reproduction, an edition or editions of such book designed for sale only in Canada, the Minister may, notwithstanding anything in The Copyright Act, by order under his hand, prohibit the importation, except with the written consent of the licensee, into Canada of any copies of such book printed elsewhere; provided that two such copies may be specially imported for the bonâ fide use of any public free library or any university or college library, or for the library of any duly incorporated institution or society for the use of the members of such institution or society.
- In case of license to reprint book copyrighted in U. K. or British possession, Minister may prohibit importation of other reprints.
2. The Minister of Agriculture may at any time in like manner, by order under his hand, suspend or revoke such prohibition upon importation if it is proved to his satisfaction that—
- Suspension or revocation of prohibition.
- (a) the licence to reproduce in Canada has terminated or expired; or
- (b) the reasonable demand for the book in Canada is not sufficiently met without importation; or
- (c) the book is not, having regard to the demand therefor in Canada, being suitably printed or published; or
- (d) any other state of things exists on account of which it is not in the public interest to further prohibit importation.
3. At any time after the importation of a book has been prohibited under section 1 of this Act, any person resident or being in Canada may apply, either directly or through a book-seller or other agent, to the person so licensed to reproduce such book, for a copy of any edition of such book then on sale and reasonably obtainable in the United Kingdom or some other part of Her Majesty's dominions, and it shall then be the duty of the person so licensed, as soon as reasonably
- Failure of licensee to supply book.
