

These addresses by Mrs. Baeyertz contained in this little book I had the pleasure of hearing. They are well worthy of being presented in this more permanent form; and Mrs. Baeyertz has done well in acceding to the wish of the many hundreds who earnestly desired the publication of them. They will, I am sure, be read with interest and profit by thousands, although their form on the printed page conveys but an inadequate idea of the power that accompanied their delivery. It is my hope that they may be widely circulated, and it is my conviction that they will help those who read them to a fuller understanding of the great truths which they set forth. May He to whose grace they testify bless them to that end.

THOMAS WARDROPE,

Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, Canada, November 2nd, 1891.

I esteem it a privilege to be asked to write a few lines by way of introduction for the book being issued by Mrs. Baeyertz. It was my good fortune to be present when the addresses which it contains were delivered during the special services held in Ottawa. I was much benefitted as were all those who attended day after day, and I desire to commend to the Christian people the careful perusal of its pages. One cannot read or hear Mrs. Baeyertz's addresses without feeling that it is not so much she who speaks as the Holy Spirit who speaks through her. The promise is that He will guide into all truth, and certainly light has been shed upon the sacred page, and passages of Scripture hitherto obscure have suddenly opened up in a wonderful manner as she expounds the Word. While Mrs. Baeyertz earnest words made a deep impression on the unsaved and were the means of leading many to Christ, her exposition of Bible truths caused Christians to study the Bible for themselves, and the interest thus created has done incalculable good. My earnest desire and prayer is that the book will be a blessing to many, and that it may be used by Him as the previous one has been to lead souls to Christ.

ROBERT STEWART,

President Y. M. C. A., Ottawa, Canada.
