National News

NOVEMBER 8, 1974 The BRUNSWICKAN - 21

N NOVEMBER 8, 1974

brink

tated that it offended his and political sensibilities t he felt it his duty to shut er down. Asked whether he red the paper "Bolshevik", he did.

missing the charges after a ime adjournment Provinourt Judge Dimos stated aving perused the contents paper, he felt it to be in hing less than good taste" criminal.

osed by saying that Watzke "deserving of some thy.'

lo vandalism

of Security Officer Charles son recently said that over loween period there was y no reported personal or damage incurred on at UNB.

NTRE

agreed upon several principles, TORONTO (CUP) -- By a close including no student faculty parity, vote the University of Toronto's Governing Council has decided to and roughly equal representation between internal and external recommend to the provincial government that the council have members. Student organizations had waged 11 students members and 13 faculty members. The 21-9 vote defeated an alternative proposal that would have seen 14 faculty and 10 members.

The Governing Council, constituted in 1971, was required to reassess its size and composition no later than this spring. It voted last June, however, to

Minister Otto Lang has been accused in the House of Commons of usurping the function of the courts and trying to push his own

Stuar c Leggatt (NDP-New Westminster) stated that Lang recently sent a memo to "many hospitals" giving his personal view on abortion, his personal interpretation of the criminal code dealing with the subject and implying a threat of prosecution of hospital

Flora MacDonald (PC-Kingston and the Islands) accused the minister of injecting his own views views on abortion.

a persistent campaign for parity with faculty members. After last week's meeting, Student Admini-strative Council President Seymour Kanowitch announced the decision would be appealed to the provincial government. Following last week's meeting, the executive committee met Monday to act upon the recommendations, and proposed a model postpone the debate until this fall. identical to the one adopted A special meeting held last week yesterday. initiated the review of the act and judgment to give doctors some

He charged that Lang has interfered with the Secretary of State's department in the granting of funds to women's groups because of his strict stand on

The women's centre in Regina

The minister replied that he agrees with Turner's view of the law but also insists that hospital committees. "legitimately and rationally exercise judgment and not do something without exercising any medical judgment at has collapsed because of this interference, he said.

latitude in applying the law.

Lang said interfering

OTTAWA (CUP) -- Justice deliberately allowed for medical abortion.

all.

Normally, the recommendations of the executive committee comprises the agenda of the full council. However, at the meeting, pretty base kind." members were confronted with a proposal to consider several alternative models for the compo-

Toronto U. governing council votes for parity sition of the council. Calling the move a "blatant fee hike student to $1.50. The fee will be collected along with students fees

Out of 9,000 students at Guelph,

3,074 voted in the referendum with

2,307 voting for the increase and to run this year," said OFS

"Ryerson, Toronto, Western, Glendon College and Lakehead

University all ran last year and

"The University of Toronto graduate students' union is running a referendum this week which we hope will pass," he said.

"There will be one every week fieldworker Ben Macdonald.

'Guelph is the first referendum paid with tuition.

708 against it.

passed.'

one model from each ballot. After five ballots, two models remained: the favoured model, and one calling for 14 faculty and 10 Group request student members.

The enlarged faculty model had been proposed by faculty members William Dunphy and Martin Friedland, who had pressed for its adoption at the executive com-TORONTO (CUP) -- The Ontario mittee. Federation of Students referendum Throughout the elimination of attempt to subvert the will of with maximum faculty and minimum student representation. council," student governor Steve By doing so, they slowly forced Moses denounced the move as "heavy backroom politicking of a council members into a clear choice: either vote for the model most favorable to students, or the In all, eight models were model most favorable to faculty. presented to the council, which Student supporters were visibly then voted sequentially, dropping relieved after the closed vote passed, but angered by the attempt to preserve the faculty position. After deciding on 11 students the council then turned to the division of student constituencies By a large majority, the council proposed seating five undergraduates, three part-time students, and three graduate students on council, defeating an alternative alternatives, faculty members proposal against specifying con-

Will Dave Barrett?

force is suing Premier Dave supreme court, Bremer charged Barrett with making libelous and January

When contacted Bremer refused

Dailly appointed Bremer education commissioner in February, 1973. At that time, the provincial government saw problems existing between the universities and the government-Bremer was interested in mediating the position of the two groups without causing a confrontation between them.

Bremer wanted to develop an intermediate body which would be a buffer area between the two. He hoped such a group might insure public monies were being reasonably accounted for and at the same time preserve the univerto comment on the case. Barrett sities' freedom in carrying out research and conducting teachin asking for a hike in their fees was consistently voted for the model stituencies. passed at the University of Guelph with a strong majority. Guelph is the seventh OFS member to pass the referendum raising the fees from 40 cents per

VANCOUVER (CUP) -- John comment. Bremer, former commissioner of a British Columbia education task

Barrett for libel and slander. In a writ filed before the B.C. slanderous comments about him on a CBC television program last

The same writ also charges education minister Eileen Dailly with slander. B.C. education commission as "a bit of a flop." Shortly after the program, Bremer was fired from his job by Dailly.

ints

with the interpretation lection of software and erience with UNB's of OS-JCL, PL-1, APL efinite asset.

ns and experience to:

AL INDUSTRY DATION

HOLARSHIPS

IEERING branch of ED SCIENCE

nonths

Employment

lucation Foundation, West, Toronto, Ont. H 3rd, 1975 and trying to enforce his interpretation of the law "by back door methods."

abortion committees.

Lang last year tried in vain to get the support of provincial attorneygenerals for his contention that hospital abortion committees are interpreting the 1969 legislation governing the subject too liberally. He has argued that the law provides for abortions only when the health of the mother is threatened. Leggatt noted that Lang's predecessor as justice minister, John Turner, said the act of the United States $900 million a year breakfast cereal industry are notorious for nutritionally unsound cereals that contain 40 to 50 per

Critics note that such a high cereal content promotes tooth decay and develops bad eating habits in children since they come stepped into the "natural cereal" market and have created full scale advertising campaigns to tell you

However, an examination of the five biggest selling natural cereals to have a "sweet tooth."

cent sugar.

He stated that it is his duty to advise cabinet colleagues where there may be a danger that government grants could be used to promote an illegal purpose.

"The criminal law makes the killing of an unborn child generally speaking an offence, though there is a narrow exception to that," Lang said.

He suggested to Leggatt that if he wants to make representations on the subject of abortion committees in hospital he should make them to provincial ministers.

Not quite the shits?

reveals that they contain up to five times the amount of sugar than NEW YORK (CUP-LNS) -- The cornflakes and are up to four times big three breakfast cereal manuas expensive per unit of protein. facturers - Kellogg, General Mills and Post, which control 80 per cent

Of the five largest selling brands, four; General Mills' "Nature Valley", Kellogg's "Country Morning", Pet's "Heartland" and Quaker's "100 per cent Natural Cereal", contain at least 20 per cent sugar. Pet Kellogg, Pet and General Mills all refuse to divulge the protein content of their cereals.

Colgate-Palmolive's "Alpin", with a sugar content of 13 per cent is the lowest of the five big "natural cereals" in sugar, but Now, pressed by an increasing number of people who refuse to eat the junk the "big three" have still contains more sugar than cornflakes.

> In addition the "natural cereals" tend to contain less minerals and vitamins than other ready to eat cereals which tend to be vitamin fortified.

for the next few weeks at York, Brock, Queen's and then Waterloo. and Dailly were unavailable for

