Mr. Angus MacLure, K.C.,
Room 1308, C.P. R. Building,
Toronto, Ontario.

Dear Mr. MacLure:

Ever since leaving Toronto on Saturday night, I have waited for a chance to send a word of explanation of my not getting in touch with you on Saturday. I could not explain, at the time you spoke to me, the nature of the engagements which I had after the funeral service. They were, however, of such a nature that I could do nothing in the way of making other appointments until they were fulfilled. I had expected to be able to get in touch with you before the evening was over, but had, as a matter of fact, no opportunity even of phoning.

I hope you have not misunderstood my failure to communicate sooner. You would realize, I am sure, the embarrassing position in which I found myself in trying to explain the nature of my appointments at the time you spoke.

I hope, if the matter in which you wished to speak to me is one concerning which it would be still possible to write, you will let me have a line.

With kind regards,

Believe me,

Yours very sincerely,
