Dear Mr. [illegible]

I have received your letter of the 5th inst. in relation to the rearrangement of Indian Affairs in the Northwest, the carrying out of which necessitates the discontinuance of your services as Inspector.

I very much regret that this rearrangement necessitates the discontinuance of your services with the Department and I will appreciate your representation of the time in which to obtain a position.

I am therefore taking such steps as are necessary to obtain a period of leave of absence for you, and I am not without hopes that you will be able to utilize the matter. I shall advise you as soon as it is possible to do so.

Yours very truly,

A. M. [illegible]
The [illegible]
