

D 40031

*with the
of your institutions of learning, in convey her royal a desire to become of America history*

events of this war. Canadians will be happy and proud to learn that today Princeton ~~has made~~ <sup>has made</sup> her royal name a part also of American history. to become

Mr. President, with my thanks, I bring to you and your fellow citizens of the United States greetings of brotherhood and goodwill from your northern neighbour.
We are grateful for your friendship. We reciprocate it most warmly. We will ever seek to maintain, and worthily deserve your confidence and your regard.