A DELIGHTFUL RECITAL

Chatham music-lovers are promised a rare treat in the coming concert to be given in the First Presbyterian Church by Miss Edna Martin. The entertainment is being managed by Miss Martin herself, and that young lady is taking every care to provide an excellent program for that

Harold Jarvis, tenor, of Detroit. who is by no means an unknown singer in the Maple City, will appear on the program and will give a number of Scotch selections. Those who have heard him before will no doubt take this opportunity of hearing him again.

Claire Monteith, the Maple City's popular baritone, will also participate in the evening's entertainment.

A. D. Jordan, of London, possibly one of the very best organists in Canada, has been secured for the evening and will give a number of organ selections, Mr. Jordan always scores a success wherever he goes, and the fact of his coming will no doubt increase the attendance on the evening of the concert.

S. Paterson in the chair.

After roll call, which is answered by quotations from the members. Miss Verna Heyward read a well written paper on the musician of the Corelli, the divine,

Mrs. Lewis read a short life-sketch and criticism of Robert Browning and his poetry, which was followed by readings and discussions by the members.

Miss Lily Green contributed an article on the life and masterpieces of Raphaet, and copies of his paintings in black and whate were inspected by the club.

The next fortnightly meeting will be held at Dr. T. K. Holmes'.

ARMORY ENTERED

The drill shed was broken into the night before last and the building generally damaged, so the caretaker. Detective McGregor, has reported to Quarter-Master Cornell. The windows throughout the building were smashed pretty freely and in addition the band room door has been broken into. The Quarter-Master, as soon as he learned of the depredations, reported the affair to the Colonel, J. B. Rankin, K. C. The matter will be investigated by the police. The officers are not blaming anyone for the deed as yet, and may turn out to be only the work of some of the boys of the neighborhood. There are, however, Mr. McGregor says, some strange circumstances in the case. The drill shed was broken into the stances in the case.

A DAY'S SPORT

The shooters, generally, had a poor time of it Thanksgiving Day. The majority went to the mouth of the river or over the marsh along Lake St. Clair. There were no ducks flying, however, and the majority got nil while a few brought home a few ducks. Judge Houston and Chas. Hadley were at Mud Creek Club. They got six.

Col. Sam Holmes, Capt. Chas. Hicklin, Lieut. Milton Pritchard and J. W. Young were at the Joy Club.

Lieut. Pritchard got a cook of tred acouple of shots at a flook lof tred heads. They are still flying around the buoy unless somebody has headed them.

A. C. McKay, W. E. Rispin, W. G. Richards, O. L. Lewis, and William Gordon were at St. Luke's. They got a few ducks and an outing.

I. L. Nicholls, Manager Pringle of the Merchants Bank, Thos. Guttridge, John Moore and J. W. Aidken were down at the Owl Club. They got duck, snipe and plover, but are not giving any figures.
