

Dominion Presbyterian

Devoted to the Interests of the Family and the Church.

$1.50 per Annum.

OTTAWA, MONTREAL, TORONTO AND WINNIPEG.

Single Copies, 5 Cents

BOOK SUGGESTIONS for CHRISTMAS GIFTS

FROM REVELL'S
LIST

SEND FOR OUR HOLIDAY CATALOGUE

Author of "Black Rock," "The Sky Pilot," etc.

Glenarry School Days.

By RALPH CONNOR. Illustrated. 12mo, Cloth, $1.25

The New story fittingly supplements "The Man from Glenarry" (now 140th 1000) in that it deals with some of the same characters but in a different period.

"His material is magnificent in its contrasts and opportunities. Ralph Connor is a man to keep in mind as one of the most virile, faithful and wholesome writers of to-day."

Public Ledger, Philadelphia.

A College Girl's Story.

Janet Ward

A Daughter of the Manse

By MARGARET E. SANGSTER. Cloth, $1.25

"Mrs. Sangster is so well known that her books need no advertisement. 'Janet Ward' is the story of a girl's life, of the sort she understands so well. Simple, natural, full of sweet experiences."—Commercial Advertiser.

My Dogs in the Northland. By Egeon R. Young. Illustrated $1.00. A book for every animal lover. Capital samples of dog friends. Boys will enjoy this book.

The Bishop's Shadow By Mrs. I. F. Thurston. Illustrated. $1.25. "Mrs. Thurston is always an interesting writer, and in 'The Bishop's Shadow' she has not a dull chapter. The book is full of striking situations, and while it is not at all sensational, it is well adapted to win and hold the interest of the reader. An element of special attractiveness in the story is the good bishop, in whom every one will speedily recognize the honored Phillips Brooks."—Prof. Amos R. Wells.

Teddy's Battle By Amy Le Feuvre. Illustrated, small 4to, 50 cents. "A captivating story. Teddy and Nancy win our hearts. Teddy's brave fight with himself to man up to a rival, and stout-hearted, handsome Nancy, a real girl in all her doings, conquers the heart. A very good story is this for the children."—The Christian Intelligencer.

Two Widesess Voyagers. A true story of Indian life. By Franklin Welles Calkins, author of "My Host the Enemy," etc. Illustrated, $1.25.

Aunt Abby's Neighbors By Mrs. Annie Trumbull Slosson, author of "Fis-hin' Jimmy." Fully illustrated, $1.00. "If you want a book that you will read and treasure, a book to laugh over and to cry over, a book to read at odd moments, or to study and mark and learn from, get 'Aunt Abby's Neighbors.' But you will give it away and have to get another copy."—The Sunday School Times.

The Evolution of a Girl's Ideals. A little record of the ripening of the affections to the time of love's coming. By Clara E. Laughlin. Decorated, net 50 cents. This delightful essay cannot but charm the reader.

The Queen of Little Barrymore Street By Gertrude Smith, author of "Reggie and Reggie's Stories." Net 75 cents. A bright, wholesome story for girls. Alice is a girl of twelve, and is the central character.

The Little Green God. By Caroline Atwater Mason, author of "The Lily of France." 75 cents. "This is a most fragrant novel, a sermon, and a romance, and a poem all in one story."—Rev. R. E. Knowles.

Opsey Smith. His life and work, by himself. Net $1.50. What a poem this man's life is! It is all of God's shaping. No doubt the book will be read by many for its good stories—but it is greater than its stories.

James Chalmers. His autobiography and letters. By Richard Levett, M. A. Maps and illustrations. Net $1.50. Robert Louis Stevenson, in a letter to a friend, spoke of the famous New Guinea missionary, James Chalmers, as "a man that took me fairly by storm for the most attractive, simple, brave and interesting man in the whole Pacific."

Musings by Camp-Fire and Wayside. By W. C. Gray, late editor of The Interior. Small 8vo, illustrated by duo-prints from photographs taken by Dr Gray. Rich cover design. Net $1.00. "The keen sympathy with nature and the wonderful observant powers of the author have given us some startling ideas as well as some charming pictures."—Rev. R. E. Knowles.

Fool's Gold. A novel by Annie Raymond Stillman, author of "How They Kept The Faith," etc. $1.25. The whole story teems with incident, while excitement and pathos alternate.

Faith and Character. Studies in character building. By Newell Dwight Hillis. Net 75 cents. [Other books by the same author.]—The Investment of Influence. $1.00; Man's Value to Society. $1.00; Great Books as Life's Teachers. $1.00. The Quest of Happiness. his latest work, a gift edition. Net $1.50. Send for complete list of Mr Hillis' works.

This is For You. Love poems of the same sort. Selected by William S. Lord. Net $1.00. An exquisite gift book for every one. The verse selected is of the sweetest sentiment and highest literary value. In its make-up it is as dainty and inviting as such a gift book should be. Tastefully boxed, with ribbon for tying. Decorated cover, deckle edges, gilt top. As complete a gift as it is possible to devise.

Wisconsin Womanhood. By Margaret E. Sangster. Large paper, 112 pages, 14 illustrations. 144 pages and many extra illustrations in Spina by W. B. Dyer. 8vo, cloth, boxed, net $2.50. 12mo, cloth, gilt top, $1.25. "An exquisite book, written in the sweetest spirit, out of the ripest wisdom and tenderest love. It might be called the very head of all Mrs Sangster's publications in popularity."—The Interior.

Lyrics of Love, of Hearth and Home, and Field and Garden, by Margaret E. Sangster. Beautifully printed in two colors. Decorated cloth, boxed, net $1.25. "Mrs Sangster is among the best of our living poets. She has the genuine poetic feeling and insight."—Boston Traveller.

Friendship. By Hugh Black, author of "Culture and Restraint." Marginal and other decorations by F. Berkeley Smith. Printed in two colors decorated cloth, gilt top, boxed, $1.25. An accepted classic, this unique volume has become a perennial favorite.

Rolling Rhymes for Youngsters. By Amos R. Wells. Illustrated in colors by L. J. Bridgeman, 4to, cloth, illustrated, $1.00 net. L. J. Bridgeman, whose unique illustrations in "Gates" last year made it a famous, has united with Amos R. Wells to produce this ideal child's book. Mr. Wells is well known already as a versatile author for children.

Incentives for Life. Personal and Public. By James M. Ludlow, D. D., author of "Deborah." 12mo, cloth, gilt top, net $1.25. Such incentives as Conscience, Ideals, Love, Loyalty, Vows, the Habit of Acting, Physical Condition, Faith, etc., being the efficient factors in the formation of personal and private character, in the end establish the moral standards of public life and conduct.

The Religion of a Mature Mind. Studies in Modern Problems. By Prof. Geo. A. Coe, N. W. University, author of "The Spiritual Life," 12mo, cloth, net $1.25. The keynote of this book is its declaration that the heart of the modern man is hungry for a fresh, original experience of the divine.

Prophetic Ideas and Ideals. A study of Old Testament prophets and prophecy from the view-point of the preacher of to-day. By Prof. W. G. Jordan, D. D., Queen's College, Kingston, 12mo, cloth, net $1.25. "It is a well written book, very helpful, suggestive, scholarly and modern. The theme is a happy and promising one. It strikes a new vein in giving men of to-day a taste for the study of the prophecies."—Prof. McFadyen.

Bleedrichly and its Similitudes. The Analogy of Phenomena Nature and Spiritual. By Rev. C. H. Tyndall, Ph. D. Illustrated, 12mo, cloth, net $1.25. Aside from the numerous and striking analogies here drawn between this and the most glorious moral power which transforms savage into saints, the volume is replete with the latest information gained about the subtle magician of wain most of us know only the name, and wish to know all that can be told.—The Outlook.

In the Hour of Silence. A series of Related Studies. A companion volume to "The Divine Pursuit." By Rev. Prof. John E. McFadyen of Knox College, 12mo, cloth, net $1.00. "There is indeed beaten gold here, and were such as this the result and output of all critical study of the Bible, Christianity and the Church would be the richer for it."—Westminster.

Fleming H. Revell Company,

PUBLISHERS
IMPORTERS
BOOKSELLERS

25-27 Richmond Street West (Booksellers' Row), Toronto, also at Chicago, New York, London, Edinburgh.