HEAVY LOSS AT MIDLAND, ONT.

On the 24th instant a fire occurred in the eastern end of the James Playfair & Company lumber yard, Midland, Ont., at the waterfront. We understand that the mill and lumber in the west end of the yard were saved.

The lumber companies involved were as follows:

MASSEY LUMBER CO.
Insurance Co. of N. America .....	Guardian ..... $17,000
Caledonian .....	Liverpool-Manitoba. 10,000
Provid'ee Wash. ....	$47,000

UNION LUMBER CO.
Insurance Co. of North America .....	$5,000
Yorkshire .....	6,000
	$11,000

British & Canadian ..	Aetna ..... 2,500
Mercantile .....	Canadian ..... 5,000
Hartford .....	Occidental ..... 10,000
British Crown .....	North Empire ..... 1,000
	$92,500

Cox & Co.
Liverpool-Manitoba .....	$5,000

Total, $170,000.

Loss estimated, 65 per cent.

The above are the most complete details available before going to press. Further information will be published in our next issue. The record for lumber fires in Midland for some years has been bad.

The opening of the furnace season has been marked by the usual calls on the fire brigade. This should impress the need of care on all who are renewing acquaintance with the coal bin and kindling pile.—Toronto Globe.
