

THE GOLDEN ARGOSY.

A High Class Boys' and Girls' Weekly.

THE LARGEST CIRCULATION OF ANY YOUTHS' PAPER IN THE WORLD.

OVER 75,000 NEW SUBSCRIBERS IN 13 WEEKS!

Which proves that it has only to be seen to be appreciated. Everybody likes it! Old and Young!

FULL PAGE AND OTHER ILLUSTRATIONS IN EVERY NUMBER.

AUTHORS who regularly contribute:

OLIVER OPTIC,
HORATIO ALGER, Jr.
FRANK H. CONVERSE,
EDWARD S. ELLIS,
FRANK A. MUNSEY,
ANNIE ASHMORE,
MARY A. DENNISON,
CAPT. C. B. ASHLEY,
ARTHUR LEE PUTNAM.

MANY OTHER AUTHORS.

A NOTABLE FEATURE IS THE

Lives of Leading American Journalists,

WHICH IS FAST BECOMING ONE OF THE MOST POPULAR FEATURES IN THE PAPER.

STORIES now appearing by these authors:

ALWAYS IN LUCK,
BOB BURTON,
THAT TREASURE,
CAMP IN THE MOUNTAINS,
THE BOY BROKER,
WHO SHALL BE THE HEIR?
LITTLE NAN,
LUKE BENNET'S HIDE OUT,
THE NEW YORK NEWSBOY.

MANY OTHER STORIES.

THE MANY LARGE AND

Beautiful Illustrations which accompany all Stories

AND SKETCHES, ARE MUCH ADMIRER. THEY ARE EXECUTED IN THE BEST STYLE.

READ WHAT OTHERS SAY!

A few of the hundreds of favorable notices we are daily receiving:

HALIFAX, N. S., MARCH 1, 1887.

The GOLDEN ARGOSY is fast becoming a leading feature on my news counter, and I am sure that it will soon out-sell any other weekly paper that we handle. You are to be congratulated on your success, which is well deserved.

Yours truly,

JOHN R. FINDLAY,
Books and News.

COLUMBUS, OHIO, JAN. 25, 1887.

The GOLDEN ARGOSY has a large circulation in the capital city, and is gaining weekly. When we place it on our counters it is a sight to see the crowd of boys and girls who look for their favorite paper so eagerly. It circulates in the best families in this city, and none need be afraid to place such reading as the ARGOSY contains in the hands of their children.

L. C. COLLINS,
Newsdealer.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., DEC. 7, 1886.

The GOLDEN ARGOSY is the best paper I have ever read. I read the sample copy and liked it so well that I continued taking it. My cousin and I can hardly wait till it comes.

P. A. WILEY.

NEW ALBANY, IND., JAN. 19, 1887.

I think the GOLDEN ARGOSY the best boy's paper published.

ERNEST B. GUERNSEY.

BATH, ME., FEB. 1, 1887.

No matter how hard it storms, I am always on hand at the coming of the ARGOSY. I would rather read it than any other paper, and it is a great favorite here in Bath.

H. C. WEBBER.

NEW YORK CITY, JAN. 18, 1887.

There isn't a paper I like so much as yours, as every word is worth reading.

H. E. N. HECHTER.

THE ABOVE WILL SHOW YOU WHAT OTHERS THINK OF

THE GOLDEN ARGOSY.

If you wish to see it yourself, a sample copy will be gladly mailed you free, by the publisher,

FRANK A. MUNSEY, 81 Warren St., N. Y.

Or his Agent, J. R. FINDLAY, News Dealer, Halifax, N. S.

Nova Scotia Printing Company, Halifax, N. S.