Market Report.

LIVE STOCK.—There were about 850 head of butchers' cattle 350 calves, 48 sheep and 30 spring lambs offered for sale at the East End Abattoir on Thursday. Trade was fair considering the unusually high prices which had to be paid for all kinds of cattle, being higher than has been paid here for many years past, quality considered, and about a quarter of a cent. per lb. all round above the very high prices prevailing on Monday's market. One butcher paid 6½¢ per lb. for four prime steers, which were scarcely as good as the cattle bought here on Monday for 6¢ per lb. Other sales of prime beefs were made at from 5½¢ to 6¢ per lb.; pretty good cattle sold at from 4½¢ to 5½¢, and the common stock, including a large number of milkmen's strippers, brought from 3½¢ to 4½¢ per lb. Calves sold at from $1.50 to $6 each. Sheep sold at from 3½¢ to 4¢ per lb., and yearlings at from 4½¢ to 5¢ per lb. Spring lambs sold at from $2 to $4.50 each. ONE MORE HERO GONE.

Now that war news is pouring in again from South Africa we have no end of reports in which special mention is frequently made of heroic deeds on the field of strife. It is proper that credit should be given to all who prove their courage and do their duty, no matter what the sphere of danger in which they act. But there are certain acts of heroism that go unrecorded; deeds that are known only to the few, that are soon forgotten by the limited number who have heard of them, and that are never told in the pages of history. Of these heroes, these martyrs to duty, not a few are Catholic priests. From an exchange we take the following story—a very simple, but a sublimely eloquent one:—

"In the haste, which challenges time in overhauling newspaper exchanges, this paper failed to record the untimely death of a priest hero in California about two weeks ago. Rev. Alfred Toomey was, up to the time of his tragical taking off, rector of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Smartsville, Yuba county, California, in the diocese of Sacramento. The manner of his death exhibits a courage found only in the martyrs of the faith, ever ready to sacrifice life in order to make one soul at peace with its God.

"The story runs that Father Toomey, being apprised of a parishioner's need for the consolations of religion before death, made all haste to reach the sick man in time. In order to do so, it became necessary to ford a swollen stream on the journey thither; either that or drive a much longer distance to a bridge. He chose the shorter but more perilous route, because a soul was in the issue. The buggy upset in the stream, and the swift waters carried the heroic pastor to his death. God's will be done! That night the sick man died with no priest near to shrive him. But the act of desire, the act of contrition sufficed, and the souls of penitent and priest stood before the throne of mercy purged of sin and prepared to enter into the joy of the Lord."

What a magnificent lesson. And we might say that the annals of this country, if once properly edited, would unfold many a like tale of heroism, devotion to duty, and actual martyrdom for the cause of God and for the salvation of souls. If it were only known how many of our missionaries, away in the North amongst the Indian tribes, the hunters, the raftsmen, the runners of the great forests, have lost health and even life, in carrying the consolations of religion to those far removed from the centres of civilization, the world would be simply amazed. But the Recording Angel has them all carefully noted.
