FEBRUARY 1, 1919

CHATS WITH YOUNG MEN

HOPE

How much they wrong thee gentle Hope who ! who say That thou art light of heart, and bright of eye ! Ah ! no-thou wert not hope, if thou wert gay : She hath no part with idle gaiety !

The gay think only of the passing

And the light mirth the flying moments yield ; But thou dost come when days of darkness lower,

And with the future dost the present gild,

balm of heaven

Where she hath left her freshly bleed. ing wound.

And on thy brow there sits eternally A look of deep, yet somewhat anxious bliss, With a wild light that nestles in thine eye. As though its home were not a world

like this. -FATHER FABER

TEN MILITARY COMMANDMENTS OF FOCH

Marshal Foch seems to be a master of psychology as well as of strategy. While playing the war-game on a gigantic scale, he does not neglect small details which help to promote colossal success. The needs of the rank and the file are always in his mind and he spursthem to bravery and endurance like the fighting patriarchs As night comes softly o'er the lands, of old. At any rate, he was imbued with some of the spirit of Moses when when some of the spirit of Moses when he promulgated ten commandments which have proved of incalculable worth on many hard fought battle-fields. "Trench and Camp" quotes these inspiriting laws as follows :

Keep your eyes and ears ready and your mouth in the safety-notch, for it is your soldierly duty to see and hear clearly, but as a rule you ould be heard mainly in the sentry challenges or the charging cheer

2. Obey orders first, and, if still alive, kick afterward if you have been wronged.

Keep your arms and equipment one in the world. Do not waste your to prison he met a poor woman bear ammunition, your gas, your food, ing in her arms a child who had your time, nor your opportunity.

swallowed a fish bone. 4. Never try to fire an empty gunt tracted woman laid the child at the nor at an empty trench, but when you shoot, shoot to kill, and forget lifted his manacled hands and blessed you shoot, shoot to min, and lorget not that at close quarters a bayonet beats a bullet. 5. Tell the truth squarely, face the music, and take your punishment and take your punishment the music, and take your punishment the music and take your punishment take take your punishment tak the music, and take your punishment map, like a man; for a good soldier won't tears. lie, he doesn't sulk, and is no Eve squealer. invoked in case of throat trouble. Be merciful to the women of your foe and shame them not, for are a man; pity and shield the children in your captured territory, for you were once a helpless child. Bear in mind that the enemy is your enemy and the enemy of anity until he is killed or captured ; then he is your dear brother or fellow soldier beaten or ashamed, whom's you should no further humiliate.

Do your best to keep your head condition, for you think with your head, fight with your body, and march with your feet.

/9. Be of good cheer and high courage ; shirk neither work nor danger ; suffer in silence, and cheer the comrades at your side with a smile.

supervise two hundred and fifty em- tribute so largely to one's success or ployees in a factory, but grace to supervise the bookkeeper, and two salesmen and the small boy that sweeps the store. failure. The girl who isn't sure of her spelling should not console herself with the thought that her employer sweeps the store. Grace to invest not the $80,000, of Grace to invest not the $80,000, of net profit, but the $2,500 of clear gain. Grace not to endure the loss of a whole shipload of spices from the average of the shipload of spices from the shi of a whole shipload of spices from the Indies but grace to endure the loss of a paper of collars from the leakage of a displaced shingle on a poor roof. Grace not to endure the tardiness of the American Congress in passing a necessary law, but attention. Therefore, she should grace to endure the tardiness of an procure a dictionary, and learn to grade to endure the function of any marbles when he ought to deliver the goods. Such a grace as thousands of busi-ness men have today—keeping the tranquil whether customers pay or do not sell, whether the crons approximation of the successes, enjoyed few educational advantages. Yet that fact, somehow twin-sister, given To walk with her the weary world around, Scattering like dew, the fragrant bala of her around, Scattering like dew, the fragrant bala of her around, Scattering like dew, the fragrant bala of her around, Scattering like dew, the fragrant bala of her around, Scattering like dew, the fragrant bala of her around, Scattering like dew, the fragrant bala of her around, Scattering like dew, the fragrant bala of her around, Scattering like dew, the fragrant bala of her around, Scattering like dew, the fragrant bala of her around, Scattering like dew, the fragrant bala of her around, Scattering like dew, the fragrant bala of her around, Scattering like dew, the fragrant bala of her around, Scattering like dew, the fragrant bala of her around, Scattering like dew, the fragrant bala of her around, Scattering like dew, the fragrant bala of her around, Scattering like dew, the fragrant bala of her around, Scattering like dew, the fragrant bala of her around, Scattering like dew, the fragrant scattering like vicissitudes. That is the kind of that her employer is not "up' grace we want. Millions of men English, should keep quiet about want it, and they may have it for and if she is the right sort-the true blue type of girl-she will shield him on every possible occasion by the asking .- Catholic Columbian.

rely upon us; yet if we are careless or ind fierent in the performance of our duties, we are slackers of the today. Everyone stands solely upon his or her merits. Therefore, the girl who concludes that, after securing a position, she can do about as she pleases, had better change her views. Everyone must fully meas-own best interests at heart considers her work from a serious viewpoint. This is the type of girl to whom de-correctly transcribing the letters he dictates. OUR BOYS AND GIRLS Everyone of us is in duty bound to render faithful service. Our busi-ness superiors believe in us, and

A CHILD'S PRAYER God grant that I the new year through May strive with heart and soul to do Those things which are most good most pronounced type. The conscientious worker sets a and true. God grant that I sach morning start My duties with a cheerful heart, golden example for other girls around her. Indeed, in many in-stances her attention to the task at And cheerfully perform my part. hand encourages this or that indif. To wear a smile all through the day, ferent clerk or operator to turn over To banish thoughts unkind away an absolutely new leaf. It is a mistake to think that favor-And when my bedtime comes, to itism is shown in the business world pray. To Him, who always understands.

And when the bells on New Year's dawn Proclaim the bright New Year is born And I awake on New Year's morn,

I pray Him whisper, low and sweet To help me guide my wayward fest, Lest I forget my prayer to meet.

-DAVID CORY. SAINT BLAZE The saint whom we honor on the BLESSED VIRGIN

against all reasoning to conclude that she can either develop or advance in her position - Bafert "little things"-must receive her best attention. Otherwise, it is third day of Febuary was the Bishop of Sebaste, in Armenia. He was ar-Echo.

THE GREAT FOCH

The London Universe for Decem-The disber prints a chatty letter from a Lourdes' correspondent. In the mmunication is found this interesting passage :

The day the armistice was signed was the Feast of St. sections of the country. Incidentally Martin-the pairou Saint of France. Father Foch, the Jesuit, brother to the Marshal, was giving a retreat in one of the convents this Ever since Saint Blase has been week. Owing to the excitement of the times and the numbers wanting BEAUTIFUL TRIBUTE TO to speak to him, he decided not to see any visitors during his short stay The following beautiful tribute to the Virgin Mother at Bethlehem should be read and taken to heart by here. He broke his rule in favour of Father Nevin, who spent a very pleas-ant half hour with him yesterday.

She wrote no books; she painted no pictures, she thrilied no audi-ences with her eloquence; she inau-gurated no great reform. She spent her life in none of the brilliert her lite in none of the brilliant the Marshal heats for prayers for spheres for which many of our girls sigh today. She simply fulled a armies. Whenever he gets the 8. Do your best to keep your head and spheres for which han you have a sight today. She simply lulled a armies. Whenever he gets the comfortable, and you feet in good little babe on her breast; she pressed condition, for you think with your its face close to her motherheart; generals and those holding higher positions in the army as 'my brother, she went about her household duties positions in the army as 'my brother. there in a Nazareth kitchen; she the Jecuit. Father Foch spoke of filled her water pitcher at the well, the organization started by the Unilighted her fires, and prepared her verse for the children's offering of frugal meals, unwaited upon, unat-Holy Communions for the Marshal tended by any, save the angels that hovered unseen. Yet through all Field Marshal highly appreciated this is in acting as Executor under Wills and as Administrator of Estates. Ask for our Booklet: "The Will That Really Provides," or consult us and we will gladly give full information. Correspondence invited We Pay 4%

THE CATHOLIC RECORD

OUR CHIEF WORK

ings Accounts, and allow withdrawals by cheque

We Pay 5% Interest on stated sums of money for investment for terms of from two to five years We Collect

Rents, attend to repairs and assume entire charge of properties in owners at ordinary agency fees.

We Act as Business Agent ents attended to and the income deliv for persons who desire their investment them through our Company.

We Rent Safety Deposit Boxes at $3.00 per annum.

tell their own story :

in part as follows:

it what this is.

ure up to requirements-otherwise his or her time is short in any field. credit to this city and to the State

The young woman who has her and I am jealous of it. I would like

Mother Pauline and her assistants

Mother Pathing and her assistants were the subjects of the highest praise. Protestant, Catholic, Metho-dist, Presbyterian and non-church going guests united in paying tribute to the perfection of the institution's workings and to the service which is being drop the combaue by the Sisters being given the orphans by the Sisters of St. Joseph.

of the speakers on the occasion, said

"I am a Methodist true and blue. This is the first time I have ever visited the Home and I am surprised.

agreeably surprised, at the good work done by these noble women and the Board." Mr. William J. Welsh, president of the Board of Managers of the Susquehanna Valley Home, a promi nent lawyer and a non-Catholic, spoke

I aways love to look over the work to have my hand in the pocket of George F. O'Neil and some others to bring our home up to the standard of this one. We are doing pretty well, but do not have the facilities to make articles are too apparent for discus sion." It is not superfluous, how ever, to remark on the broad-minded spirit of fairness which prompted his communication and the testimony rendered by non Catholics to the excellent condition of the Catholic in stitution. It is in sharp contrast to the narrow spirit shown in certain that our institutions have nothing to

The Reverend William J. Hill, one

Capital Trust Corporation Head Office : 10 Metcalfe Street, Ottawa

Write us for free advice on any financial matter.

from the county funds. The follow. fear from inspection and that we can ing excerpts from the Binghamton Republican-Herald of December 20, rely on the innate sense of justice of great bulk of the american the people to give credit for work well done.-America.

Bookkeeping or efficiency of the work done by the valo nune. Mr. James J. Farnsworth ends his letter with the remark: "The Shorthand conclusions to be drawn from these

Subjects Taught in

THE

Westervell School LONDON, ONT.

By Expert Instructors Send for Free Catalogue

J. W. WESTERVELT, Principal

more favorable light, and results in her marinage acts Miss Holingford, by Ross Mulholland, s simple and delightful novel by Miss Mulholland who has written a number of books for young ladies which have met with popular favor. Leopard of Lancianus The, By Maurice Franci Egan. There are eight stories and every one of them has a very interesting plot worked out with dramatic skill.

Standard Library

60c. Each, Postpaid

Acolyte, The story of a Catholic College Bu Acolyte, The The story of a Catholic College Bu Attentures of Four Young Americans. By Hearter E, Delamare, This book describes the stirrin-times during their trip abroad, and the experience of Johany who was lost in the Catacombs. Alley Moore. A tale of the times, by Richard Baptis G'Brien, D. D. Showing how exiction, murder are such pastimes are managed and justice adminia-tered in Ireland, together with many stirring inci-dents in other lands. The story tells of the heroi-lives of our Irish grandfathers and grandmothera There is no lack of incident and accident. For those interested in Irish history of these later day. Alley Moore in a new diess will serve a good purpose. Lichemist's Secret, The ; by Isabel Cscilia William. This collection of short stories is not of the sor written simply for amusement; they have that ample, direct teaching, and they lead as to thil-of and to pity sorrows and trials of others rathe than our own.

Than out own. Aithea, by D. Ella Nirdlinger. A delightful story griving some of the author's home experiences and the plays of her happy childhood. It is a mary company of four brothers, a sitter, and theil belored parents. Alias Kitty Casey, by Marie Gertrode William. Kitty Gasey is in reality Catherine Carew, a gi-threatened with misfortune, who is an endeav-to sociude heresil, and at the same time enjoy is advantages of the country in summer time, accept a meulal position is a hotel, taking the position o waitress related by her maid. Kitty Casey. Th-story is well written, and a romance cleverity told Arabella, by Ana T. Sediler. rabella, by Anna T. Sadlier,

Back to Rome, by Scrutator (J. Godfrey Rupert.) Being a Series of Private Letters, etc., addressed : an Anglican Clergyman. Beech Bluft, by Panny Warner. A tale of th South before the Civil War, Two other storis are contained in this volume : "Agnes," and "Fo Many Days."

Bakes and Fianagans, by Mrs. James Badljer. Thi book is the masterpiece of the illustrious autho-whose writings have made her name a househole word among the Catholics of America.

Word among the Calibration of America. Brownie Stadi, by Richard Ammerica. Brownie is -college dog who chumas with the new boys as soo: as they arrive and is with them in all their sports. He even succeeds in winning the decisive baseball game of the year. Boys, girls, and growaupy will follow with deep interest this geautine records of two years of a college boy's ills. By The Grey Sas, by Herbert Spring. Callists. by Cardinal Newman. A tale of the and their entance into the Catholic family and their entance into the Catholic Church. Ugranes, by Rev. John Joseph Franco, S. J. As absorbing story of the persecutions of Catholic is the fourth century, and the attempt of Julian the Apostate to restore the gods of Houser and Virgili Woodbourne. By Colonel Jos, Mayu, A Novel of the Revolutionary Times in Virginia and Marg-iand Callists, by Cardinal Newman. A tale of the Third Century; attempting to imagine mac-express the feelings and relations between Chris-tians and heathens of that time.

tians and heathers of that time. Catholic Pioneers of America. By John O'Eas. Murray, New edition revised. From the birth : Eadin, 1853. Cineas, by J. M. Villeranche. A study of civillis. it of the second study of civillis. Dirth Pacensism and purely human philosophy but with Judaism also, towards the close of the reign of Neco. The scenes are laid in Rome and to meet and analyze the different conditions and situations, including the burning of Home, the author has created imaginary characters such as Cineas of the Roman Guard around whose con-version to Christianty the plot of the story is woven.

woren. Jarence Belmont. By Rev, Walter T, Leahy. Th is a fine college story, full of healthy vitality an it will amuse all the boys who are lovers of th adventurers of a college boy.

Borrowed From The Night, by Anna C. Minagea, Miss Minage has a way of showing her readers the delightful Southern character in all its charm and genility. No one will read "Borrowed From the Night, without being fascinated with Else-Martinez, whose early life is surrounded with a much interest. acventurers of a college boy. Commander, The; by Charles D'Hericault. As historical novel of the French Revolution. Conscience's Tales, by Hendrick Constance Thoroughly interesting and, well written tales c: Flemish life, including "The Recruit," "Mins Host Gensendonck," "Blind Ross," and "The Foor Nobleman."

el Who Dared, A; A novel, by Geneview much interest. Cardinal Democrat, The ; Henry Edward Manasing by J. A. Taylor. It is a true portrait of the Gardinal whose own ideal of a good bishop he surely realized. Cardome, by Anna C. Minogue. A Romance of Kentucky. Much has been written of the trouble-some times from 1860 to 1865, but beidom. A Cardonic for a store, Miss Minogue is a resident of Kennucky, and in Cardome presents a clear pictures of the confusion and uncertainty which existed and bratles with romance and adventure.

Damsel Who Dared, A; A novel, by Genericy: Irone.
Dear Frends, by D. Ella Nirdlinger. A home story and in that lies its special charm. There are dark days and bright days pictured, just as they count to every home, and love is the source of the more sunshine glinting through the story.
"Deer Jane," by isabel cectific williams. A sweet simple taile of a self-accificing elder sister whose ambition to keep the little household together h told with a grace and interest that are irrestible.
Five Birds in a Net, by Henriette Eugena Dea-mined. It is the story of five children, and incidentally introduces many of the local customs power hull of excitation and many thriling. The scene is laid in England, afterward diffting a ground. By the hand of a beartibly power, hainan Tale, describing the hardships of an arths who finally won the hand of a beartibly pown, tainan Tale, describing the bardships of an arths who finally won the hand of a beartibly pown, tainan maden in marriage.
"Feurange, dy Malone Augurde Creaven. The comming mole has been as atmosphere of delicate refine wort.
Gertrude Mannering, By Frances Noble, Thischars ing noget has been the process Noble, Thischars bristles with romance and adventure, Captain Roscoff, by Raoul de Navery. A thrilling story of fearlessness and adventure, Faith, Hope and Chanity, by Anonymous. An exceedingly interesting tale of love; war and adventure during the exciting times of the French Bevolution.

Bevolution. Fernouffe. Bernoliffs is the name of a large sensute in Deromshire, England, the home of Agues Falkland, who with her family and adopted sister Francis Macdonald, turnish the interesting orsans and the secret influctuoe of which Agues Falkland is the innecent sufferer. Giannella, by Mrs. Hugh Fraser. Happy-Go-Lucky, by Mary C. Growley. A collec-tion of Catholic stories for boys, including "A Little Heroine," "Ned's Baseball Club," "Terry and His Friends," "The Boys It Balton," and "A Christmas Stocking."

refinement. Scrtude Mannering, By Frances Noble, Thischarm ing novel has been regarded as a model love story showing the tremendous influence of a pure whole some convent-bred gril, scriftcing har life for the conversion of her infiddl lover. Hany of Many Chords, A; by Mary F, Nixon, Hawthorndean, by Clara M, Thompson. A story t American life founded on fact.

Heiress of Kilorgan, by Mrs. J. Sadlier. History and fiction combined; very interesting. Her lourney's End. By Francis Cooke. A story o mystery, of strife and struggle, of petty jeziousy and of sublime devotion.

May Brooke, by Mrs. Anna H. Dorsey. The story o two cousins who are left in the care of their very two cousing who are set in the care of their weight wealthy but eccentric uncle, who professes no religion and is at odds with all the world. If follows them through their many trials and exper-iences, and contrasts the effect on the two distinct characters.

mysery, of sime and sougget, of perty jueboary and of sublime devotion. Lacks, by David Bearse S. J. Elders as well as juniors may read it will both profit and pleasure. Kathleen's Motto, by Genevivere Walsh. An inte-esting and inspiring story of a young lady who, b, her simplicity and honexity, succeeds in spite o discouraging difficulties. Lady Amabel And The Shepherd Boy, by Elizabeti M. Stewart. A Catholic tale of English family is ridiculed. In the course of time various opportunities presen themesen which bring him before her parents in : more favorable light, and results in her marriage Late Miss Hollington, by Ross Mulholland.

derry Beatts And True, by Mary C. Crowley. collection of stories for Catholic children, includi "Little Beginnings," "Blind Apple Woma "Pollys Five Dollars," "Marie's Trumpet," = "A Family's Frolic." Mystery of Naples, The; by Rev E. P. Graham With six illustrations. Orchids. A novel by Lelis Hardin Bugg.

Christmas Stocking." a The Crucible, by Isabel Occilia Williams. Theses stories of high endeavor, of the patient bearing of pain, the sacrifice of self for others' good, see kayed on the divine true story of Him Who gave up all for us and died on Calvary's Cross (Sacred Hear; Review.)

Magic of The Sea, The ; or, Commodore John Barry in the Making, by Captain James Connelly. It is a historical novel, and well fit to take its place beside "Richard Carvel."

dering Elwood, by Sarah M. Brownson. The story of a haughty society girl, selfsh and arrogant, wha swakes to the shallowness of her existence through the appreciation of the noble character and relig-ous example of a young man whom she afterwards contrast.

SEVEN

60 Each Postpaid

tound Table of American Catholic Novelists, A delightful symposium of short stories by represen-tative American Catholic novelists, tative American Catholic novelists, Round Table of Irish and English Catholic Novelists, A. pleasing collection of novelettes by emissent Catholic authors of England and Ireland, Rence's Marriage, From the French of Marthas Laschese, By Miss Pauline Stump, (An admira-ble story to be read with both pleasure and profit, in which the immense advantages accruing from a convent doucation are clearly shown). Moo pages, Sealed Packet The, By marnon J, Brunowe, A cleverity contrived story which carries an unexcep-tional moral and some delightful pictures of Echool Lie, An excellent book for either School or Home Library. or roome Lorary, ins of Society, The; by Bernard Vaughan, S. J. Words spoken in the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Mayfair, during the Scaaon 1916. Siter Of Charity, The; by Mis, Anna H. Dorsey, The story of a Sister of Charity who, as a nurse, atiends a non-Catholic family, and after a shipwreck and recue from almost a hopeless situation, brings the family into the Church of God. It is especially interesting in its descriptions.

As By Fire. By Jean Connor. After living a life that was a lie, the beroine of this story renounces it that was a lie, the horoine of this story renounces it all that she might atome for the great wrong she has done. A really absorbing and prohitable story form Bound. By Elesnor C, Donnelly, & Bormance of Shell Beach. A story telling of the experiences and how nine persons amused theme.

experiences and how mine persons amused thems solves during the time they were storm bound, travecuter's Daughter, The; by Lady Georgianna Fulleron. An interesting Catholic story for young people.

Test Of Courage, Tha. By H. M. Ross. A story that grips the heart. The well constructed plot, the breary dislogue, the clear, rapid style, carry that reader away.

halia, by Abbe A. Bayle. An interesting and instructive tale of the Fourth Century.

heir Choice. By Henrietta Dana Skinner. 413 charscters are cleverly drawn, and its pages are full of shrewd wit and delicate humor.

wo Victories, The ; by Rev. T. J. Potter. A story of the conflict of faith in a non-Catholic family and their entrance into the Catholic Church.

85c. Each Postpaid

Allocia, the Englandman, by Finales Avening. African Fabiola, The; translated by Right Reve. Mgr. Joseph O'Connell, D. D. The story of the Life of St. Ferpetam, who suffered mariyrdown together with her slave, Felicitas, at Carthage in the year 20, One of the most moving in the annals of the Church.

Auriel Selwode, by Emily Bowles. Woven with strands of history are dark threads of jealonzy, plots and forgeries; but there are also brigh weavings of love; and, of course, all's well that ands well.

Arnoul, the Englishman, by Francis Aveling,

10. Dread defeat, but not wounds; | hovered_unseen fear dishonor, but not death, and die game, and whatever the task, come, her name is, and will ever re-remember the motto of the division, main, the most blessed among occurs this par women

When we begin to talk about busi-ness life, we shoot right off and talk about men who did business on a large scale, and who sold millions of ness ine, we shoot right off and talk about men who did business on a large scale, and who sold millions of dollars of goods a year; but the vast majority of business men do not sell a million dollars of goods, nor a half million, nor a quarter million, nor million, nor a quarter million, nor million, nor a quarter million, nor the eighth part of a million.

"A maiden of Judea went up so close to the throne of God; she kept Put all the business men of our cities, towns, villages and neighbor-hoods side by side, and you will find that they sell less than fity thousand dollars worth of goods each. All these men in ordinary business life want divine help. You see how the Put all the business men of our want divine help. You see how the wrinkles are printing on the counten. wrinkles are printing on the counten-ance the story of worriment and care. You cannot tell how old a business man is by looking at him, Gray hairs at thirty. A man at forty. it we with the stoop of a nonogenar-ian. No time to attend to improved denistry, the grindes cease because they are few. Actually dying of old age at forty or fifty, when they onght age at forty or fifty, when they ought

Many of these business men have bodies like a neglected clock to which you come and you wind it up, and it begins to buzz and roar, and then the hands start around very remidle

In another part of the same paper occurs this paragraph:

"Monseigner Charost Bishop of Lille] moved his audience to enthus iasm when he spoke of Marshal Foch who for many months had his head-quarters at Cassel, within sight of the famous Mount Kemmel. To the 'doyen' of Cassel the Marshal said when things looked dark: 'I canwhen things looked darK: 1 can-not prevent the enemy's shells from falling on Cassel, but I promise you that the Germans shall never enter the town.' Every day the great soldier might be seen kneeling for half an hour in a quiet convent chapel; on Saturdays he went to confession to the doven, and on Sundays to Holy Communion in the parish church. 'One felt,' said the Bishop, 'that he walked hand in hand with God, and there is the secret of his success.'

This is high praise, but as the Marshal is a great man, neither praise nor dispråise will affect him. -America little things—from a serious view-point, for all thinking persons know that details are the heart-beats of any enterprise. A Friend of justice and fair play recently sent to America a letter which began as follows: "I am not a Catholic. I am not engaged in any begins to buzz and roar, and then the hands start around very rapidly, and then the clock strikes five, or ten, or forty, and strikes without any sense, and then suddenly stops. So is the body of that worn out business man. Now, what is wanted is grace--twine grace for ordinary business men, men who are harnessed from morn till night and all the days of their life — harnessed in business. Not grace to lose a hundred thousand but grace to lose $10. Not grace to

A CATHOLIC ORPHAN ASYLUM

Ursuline College, "The Pines" Chatham, Ontario

Under the Patronage of the Right Rev. M. F. Fallon, D.D., Bishop of London

An Ideal School for the Education of Young Girls

Excellent situation, splendidly equipped class rooms, comfortable living and sleeping apartments, magnificent grounds for sports and games.

College, Preparatory, Art and Commercial Departments Complete Course in Home Economics

SCHOOL OF MUSIC affiliated with Toronto Conservatory

New Term Opens January 7, 1919

Apply for Prospectus to the REV. MOTHER SUPERIOR dramatic skill. . Lost Lode, By Christian Reid and Stella's Discis-line, By T. X. L., in one volume. The "Los Lode "is a story of Mexico, strong, interesting, and like everything from the same pon, charmingly written. The second story is another specimen of wholescome light literature, and we deem it judiel ounly coupled with the former beautiful story. Maiden UP-To-Date. A; by Geneview Iroze. Mantilla, The; by Richard Amerie. The Man-tilla is a romantic tale of insurveitors Cuba, with Bob Weldon, engineering student and foot-ball king, as hero; and Mary Dunleaven Merca-deres, otherwise Coria, for heroine. Master Moture. The: by Lura Conan. A Tale o

Master Motive, The; by Lurea Conan. A Tale o the Days of Champlain, Tranalated by Therea. A. Gethin.

A. Gethin, Merchant Of Antwerp, The; by Hendrick Conscience A novel of impelling interest from beginning to ear concerning the romance of the daughter of a dia mond merchant, and Raphael Bauks, who, through the uncertainties of fortune, earcs the parentia approval of their marriage, which had beer withheld on account of difference in socia.

Mesalliance, A. A Novel, by Katherine Tynan,

Mirror, The; by Mary F. Nixon. Nelly Kelly, By Henrierre E. Deiamare, Nelly is 6 little mother to her brothers and sisters and suc ceeds wonderfully well in meeting the difficultie that arise, Inat arise, Old House By The Boyne, by Mrs. J. Sadlies. Picturing scenes and incidents true to life in se Irish Borough. Orphan Sisters, The; by Mary I. Hoffman, This is an exceedingly interesting story, in which some o the doctrines of the Catholic Church are clearly defined.

Parting of the Ways, The ; by Florence Gilmore, Pearl Of Antioch, by Abbe Bayle. A charming and powerfully written story of the early ages of the Church.

Church. Philip. A Tale of the Coal Regions. By Ret. Patrick Justin McMahon. A trilling and well told story of the days, of the Mollie Maguires Well written and conceived with an admirable unity of plan, the story is unraveled so as to intensity the intersit as the reader passes from chapter to chapter, 580 pages. Renald's Mission, By Henriette R. Delamara Ronald's a boy of eight in whose fortunes othe boys and girls are sure to be interested. J mission was conflocd to him by his mother on he death-bed; the brave little fellow persevered with a courage beyond his years, until he had fulfile his mission.

his mission, Rose Le Blanc, by Lady Georgianna Fullerton. thoroughly entertaining story for young peop by one of the best known Catholic authors.

Ask for Quantity Discount The Catholic Record LONDON, CANADA

Orchids. A novel by Lelia Hardin Bugg. Solitary Ialand, The ; by Bev, John Taibot Smith-As mysterious and facinating in its plot as either of the sensational productions of Archibald Claver-ing Gunther, and it contains portraits which would not shame the bruth of a Thackery of Dickers. Tangied Paths, by Mrs, Anne H. Doray Catholic novel Tangied Paths is admirable as Catholic novel its mist admirable, and the author will compare this very satisfiant of Blenham Forest, for instance, abe can almost sing the Nunc Vimiting, for her improvement is so marked that the seema in her work to have almost reached its climax."—Avs Maria

Maria The Waters Of Contradiction, by Anna C. Minogra. A delightful romance of the South and Scutters people, and so strong in its interest that the readers strention increases to the very last chapter. Tears On The Diadem, by Anna H. Dorsey. A novel of the innor life of Queen Elizabeth. So interesting that the reader will be loathe to lay it down before fluishing the entire story. Tempest Of The Heart, The. By Mary Agathas Gray. A story of deep feeling that centers around a young mork musician. Trammelings and Other Stories, by Georgina Peili a young more musician. Trammelings and Other Stories, by Georgina Pell Curtis, Curtis. Turn Of The Tide, The. By Mary Agatha Gray' There is a complexity in the weaving of this story. There is a complexity in the weaving of this si that will keep the reader in suspense till the v end. Towers of St. Nicholas, The. By Mary Agaths Gray. A story of the persecution of Catholics during the reign of Queen Elizabeth, Within and Without the Fold, By Minnie Mary Lee.

With A Pessimist in Spain, by Mary F. Nixon With 13 illustrations.

$1.00 Postpaid

(dgar, or From Atheim to the Full Truth, by Louis Vou Hammerstein, S. J. Some of his books have gained a world-wide renown and spread his name far and wide as a first-class apologie, who is up to-date in every branch of Protestant controversy. In this translation he gives us a new

Ask for Quantity Discount

The Catholic Record

There is a place on every farm for at least one sow and her pigs, because there is waste feed that they will consume. Preventing waste and producing pork is doing double service, and making money two ways at once.

The world needs wool. The wholesale price of raw wool increased dur-ing the war 200%.

MATTERS